'FORD, ROCKEFELLER AND EDISON ALWAYS UP TO DEVILMENT'

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., May 2.—Biggest news I see in the papers today is among the foot races. "Charley Paddock," "the world's fastest human," lost a hundred-yard dash to some girl, for not showing up at starting time at the marriage bureau. Henry Ford, "the world's best known human," won a hundred-yard dash at Frederickburg, Va., from his secretary. Edison will be racing Ford now, with John D. Rockefeller challenging the winner.

We got to do something with those three rich kids. They just got nothing to do and are in some devilment every time we pick up a paper. Hoover ought to put 'em on a commission to investigate the kindergartens.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Corner of North and Jefferson streets, was badly besprinkled with grass, Thursday afternoon, and still is, unless some thoughtful soul has swept it into a dust pan. Glass is, as you probably know, bad for automobile tires.

Some nice white lines were painted on the asphalt at the corner of Jefferson and Grant streets, Thursday afternoon.

The new little saplings on the Diamond told Pa New this morning that they are very satisfied where they have been planted, and just to let the public at large know it, they have produced some green buds. The trees were planted there a couple of weeks ago. The ground has been rolled and grass planted. The Diamond will soon be an elegant spot.

For the information of all those who are tired picking dandelions, violets, grown up from tiny seeds, are around everywhere.

Pa New chanced to be in a position where he could see the roof of a downtown building yesterday, and he was surprised to note five or six of the regulation punt bottles lying on it. Yes, they were empty.

New Castle continues to meet with favor as the convention city of western Pennsylvania. Past success with the many state gatherings held here has served to make New Castle the favorite in this end of the state. New Castle has facilities for caring for any size convention, unequalled by any other small city in the state.

If the route from the new bridge to Butler avenue and East Washington streets becomes one extensively used, it will be necessary to provide parking on one side of Crawford avenue, Spruce street, Ray street, etc., it is feared. With parking on both sides of the street, traffic is quite slow through these streets.

The stockless fad has evidently been revived with enthusiasm with the arrival of warm weather, by the school girls.

New lights in the curb system on Washington street are certainly an improvement. The curb lights begin (Continued On Page Two)

Military Rule In Columbus Prison To Be Continued

INQUIRY BOARD READY TO REPORT

Warden Preston Thomas Will Not Leave Office Under Pressure

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—Military rule of Ohio State penitentiary will continue indefinitely—possibly for thirty days.

The old prison, wrecked by fire and by the hands of mutinous convicts, will be gradually repaired and when the cells are again ready for occupancy all of the 3,900 prisoners will be locked up. They are now housed in a stockade, hastily erected by the troops, and in various buildings. From time to time the overcrowded condition of the penitentiary will be relieved and, slowly but surely, normalcy will be restored.

Thomas to Stick
Whether Warden Preston Thomas will lose his job, which he has held for seventeen years, still was problematical today but there were unmistakable indications that he would not. The veteran warden himself insists he will not quit under fire and the clamoring of convicts for his removal has died down to a whisper. Even the warden's political enemies have ceased firing.

Governor Myers V. Cooper was expected to receive today or tomorrow the report and recommendations of the special board of inquiry he appointed to investigate the cause and fix the responsibility of the fire tragedy of the night of April 21 when 320 convicts, trapped in their locked cells, were burned to death or suffocated.

Colonel Robert Haubrich of the Ohio National Guard, in command of the military occupation of the prison, said today that "All is quiet on the prison front." He saw no likelihood of further rebellion. The once "passively resisting" convicts are no longer resisting. They are licked.

Seek To Delay Vote On Parker

Fear Senate Is Prepared To Reject Confirmation Of Nomination

EIGHT 'DOUBTFUL' HOLD JUDGE'S FATE

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 2.—Administration leaders, apparently believing the senate is prepared to refuse confirmation of Judge J. Parker as an associate supreme court justice, today sought to postpone the final vote until next week.

All indications point to rejection of Parker if the vote is taken today although the nominee's fate actually rested in the hands of eight senators now classed as "doubtful." The men who can either confirm or reject Parker by the overwhelming weight of their votes were Black, Brock, Connally, Sheppard and Tydings, Democrats; Jones, McMaster and Thomas, Id., Republicans. All have been classed at one time or another, an anti-Parker but administration leaders insisted most of them vote for his confirmation in the end.

Davis Requests Record Change

Secretary Wants Statement On His Prohibition Attitude Changed

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 2.—Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, who is opposing Senator Grundy, (R.) in Pennsylvania's senatorial primaries, was unsuccessful today in having the records of the Senate lobby committee to refer to him as "no, not hardly" an anti-prohibitionist.

Senator Caraway (D., Arkansas), the chairman, told Captain William H. Stayton, chairman of the board of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, a friend of the secretary, had asked him if Stayton did not want to alter his testimony.

Davis Included
Stayton replied he included Davis among the six members of the Hoover cabinet "who believe the prohibition law is a failure," but Davis is "hardly a wet personality."

All Major Candidates Are In Western Pennsylvania Territory Today

By IRA M. MOHLER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Crackling verbal "Big Bertha" as tension in the spring primary campaign tightened up was heard all along the line on the western Pennsylvania "front" today with directing generals in the primary wars converging on Pittsburgh and nearby points this morning.

Former Governor Gifford Pinchot was scheduled to broadcast from a local radio station early in the day while Joseph R. Grundy, who completed a two-day visit to Venango, Crawford and Warren counties last night, was to speak before a large meeting of industrial workers at New Kensington today. Grundy returns to Pittsburgh to address the League of Women Voters tonight and moves on to Erie tomorrow for a noon speech.

Candidates Meet.
The first open and really spectacular passage-at-arms between opposing candidates occurred in Greensburg last night when Pinchot and Francis Shunk Brown, contesting for the gubernatorial nomination, met personally in a Greensburg hotel lobby.

Cordial shaking of hands marked the brief meeting. An atmosphere of geniality was noted. And a few moments later, Brown heard that Pinchot had attacked his proposal for a referendum on the 18th amendment.

Brown promptly issued a statement, without mentioning Pinchot, that fairly bristled with charges to the effect accusations against him were "without honor and without shame."

Pinchot Attacks Brown.

Student Body Against Council

Westminster Students Vote To Abolish Student Council

ACTION IS RESULT OF FACULTY DOMINATION

Student government has been abandoned at Westminster College in New Wilmington it is reported here. By a vote of 237 to 141 the student body decided to discontinue it, on the grounds that it had become a "hol-low shell" reports further.

For some time there has been some agitation among the student body for the abolishment of the student government, the arguments advanced in favor of this being that the council had no authority and the election of officers for it was merely a gesture.

Vote of the students was taken at a meeting yesterday, which had been called ostensibly for the purpose of electing officers for the year. Instead of electing officers, it was decided after considerable discussion, to abolish the council, according to the reports received here.

President W. Charles Wallace indicated that no action would be taken by the college authorities. "The function of student government," said he, "is to make recommendations to the faculty or officials, not to wield supreme authority."

New Air Mail Pick-Up Device Proves Itself

Withstands Tests In Tryout At Hoover Field By Post-office Officials

NEW CASTLE MAY GET FIRST ONE

After having withstood vigorous tests to which it was subjected at Hoover field in Washington, D. C. post office officials have approved the new air mail pick-up device invented by Dr. Lytle S. Adams, and New Castle may be the first city in the country to have the device installed for service.

Unavoidable delays in landing and take-offs, particularly on small fields and in wet weather, have precluded giving many of the smaller cities in the United States air mail service without unduly lengthening the fast through schedules of the arterial lines between the big cities. Even in the larger cities, it is said, complaints are made that schedules are slowed up by the remote location of airports.

Mechanism Simple
The newly devised mechanism perfected by Dr. Adams is most simple. On the ground is what is termed the "trap," a large triangular shaped funnel like box, with an open mouth 30 feet wide and 15 feet high. This tapers back a distance of 40 feet with a parabolic slot in the roof, to a round channel similar to an old fashioned cannon, whose muzzle projects out beyond the apex.

Below the cannon mouth, at the end of a beam, below which are seen two powerful coil springs, rests a "cradle" for all the world like an old-time ducking stool. This contains the mail pouch or other load which is to be picked up and carried away by the passing plane.

Chief Executive Ends Sessions

Assures Business Men Nation Has Weathered Stock Market Crash

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, May 2.—America's men of affairs in the world of commerce and industry were on their way home from Washington today, bearing with them a program of stiff further economic tasks imposed by President Hoover.

The chief executive brought the annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce to a close last night with the assurance that the nation has weathered the storm of last fall's stock market crash, but he told the industrial leaders that every one of the agencies and forces set up in the "great economic experiment" must be maintained with unrelenting pressure for some time.

At the same time Mr. Hoover gave the departing delegates food for thought by calling attention to points in the national economic structure which the depression had shown to be weak and in need of prompt attention. He promised, "when the situation clears a little," to organize a body representative of business, economics, labor and agriculture to undertake their closer examinations.

Connellsville Man Severely Hurt As Bomb Damages Home

Believe Bomb Placed In Stove Of Home Of Assistant Street Commissioner (International News Service) CONNELLVILLE, Pa., May 2.—With Assistant Street Commissioner Thomas Guard near death as a result of a bomb explosion that partially wrecked his home here last night, city and state police today began an investigation into the blast.

Guard's home, in South Connellsville, was ripped in half by the explosion and Guard was probably fatally injured.

Police believe the bomb had been placed in the stove of Guards' home. The stove was torn from the floor and demolished when a terrific explosion resulted shortly after the fire was lighted.

Guard was knocked down by the force of the blast and flying splinters from the wrecked stove penetrated his head and body. One half of the home sagged on its foundations and collapsed as though a giant hand had pounded on it.

Guard regained consciousness early today. He could give no explanation for the bombing.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., May 2.—Rescue crews bearing food, clothing and medical aid were being rushed into the tornado-stricken Missouri valley today where a series of twisters last night killed seven persons, according to reports. Injured scores and did property damage which may amount to millions of dollars.

Communities in four states—Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, and Missouri—were crushed by the tornadoes which descended with little warning shortly after 7 o'clock last night.

At Takamah, Neb., four persons were reported killed and several injured. Scores were made homeless there as the fierce winds crushed house, buildings and barns.

Pender, Neb., a town of nearly 1,000 persons, was practically smashed from the map, so thorough was the storm's destruction. Three persons were reported dead there. Hundreds are homeless, their houses and buildings wrecked and scattered for miles about.

Other Nebraska towns struck by the twisters include Homer, Jackson, Bancroft and Walhalla. Although telegraphic and telephone communication throughout the stricken area was disrupted, Meager reports indicate that damage was done at White Cloud, Winchester, Valley Falls and Weston.

Damage was also reported at Falls City, Neb., and the Missouri towns of Napier, Whitesville, Mound City and Rosendale.

Calls for physicians and nurses have been dispatched from the stricken areas, indicating that the injured list may reach huge proportions.

In the Takamah area two bodies were identified as Al Brinkley and John Hauser. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans C. Anderson was killed outright in his mother's arms. The mother's arms were broken as the child was torn from her grasp.

Although on Tuesday a path through the heart of Homer, Neb., Mrs. Millie Lathrop, winner of a medal for bravery, stayed at her telephone switchboard to warn rural residents of the approaching tornado.

Immediately after the disturbances at Omaha and Sioux City airplanes set out to survey the damaged zone, but darkness forced them back.

The Red Cross at Omaha sent a score of nurses, hospital wagons and a dozen doctors to the stricken areas last night to care for the wounded. Additional relief was dispatched today.

Although communication lines were torn down in Western Iowa, the damage is believed to be slight. Salk, Ia., was struck by one small tornado which did little damage.

Although the twisters moved slowly in most instances, they tore up houses and landscape with an unusual fury. At many points the residents were warned by its slow approach and were able to find shelter in basements and storm cellars.

Only a negligible rainfall accompanied the storms, but immediately following the tornado which struck Homer torrents of rain fell. On the outskirts of Sioux City more than an inch of rain descended. It was estimated.

Cheap At A Billion.

Anger Flouts Death.

Really Big Figures.

R. ARTHUR G. BRISBANE

(Copyright, 1930, King Features

Syn., Inc.)

Large type tells you the new tariff will cost the United States one billion dollars a year. It will, probably. And undoubtedly that tariff contains many jobs, deals and mistakes.

But if the tariff enables only five million American workmen to earn one dollar a day more than they would have earned without the tariff, that would repay the billion with a bonus of fifty per cent, to say nothing of added profit that would encourage business men to build up industry and national prosperity.

Many of our emotions, according to Francis Bacon, make us indifferent to death, anger among others. Eng Fu Week, 62, and Eng Loy, 51, Chinese and cousins, fought with heavy meat cleavers. When the police arrived both had fractured skulls and gashes on heads and bodies, yet the police were compelled to separate them by force. One will die surely, the other probably, and it was all about a blanket.

If his figures fascinate you, read about an extraordinary bridge game, thoroughly authentic, in which the man of Glastonbury, England, held a hand.

Each partner had 13 cards, of the same suit.

The man with 13 spades made a big slam.

Mathematicians say the chances against such an occurrence are two thousand, two hundred and thirty-five million trillion to one.

The British trillion, is a million multiplied by a million multiplied by a million.

With us it is only a million multiplied by a thousand multiplied by a thousand.

The naval conference delegates are safe at home. Submarines were outlaid although there was pleasant talk about "humanizing" them.

Italy will build 22 more submarines, and three more powerful cruisers with no humanizing talk.

Mussolini appreciates the beauty of peace talk and also appreciates the importance of national safety.

Twenty-two submarines will create more respect for Italy than twenty-million speeches on international peace could create.

Jack Barstow establishes a new record in air gliding, remaining up more than 15 hours in a plane with no engine. The mark isn't official, but the Germans will start to beat it.

Their record is 14 hours and 45 minutes.

Meanwhile, Maj. T. C. Macaulay, of San Diego, sends news that Barstow will immediately try for a longer record.

News from India reminds the British of Bacon's warning that nations with great possessions, far away, are always in danger.

A second son of Gandhi is imprisoned "rigorously" for one year.

Mrs. Gandhi saved the lives of four goats and three hens about to have their throats cut as sacrifices to one of many Hindu goddesses. She persuaded her husband's followers that it is not necessary to shed the blood of hens or goats to drive out the hated British. At the critical moment a "professional witch" said the goddess had told her that she did not want any more sacrifices.

Wall Street felt better Wednesday, some prices up, some bears "hurrying to cover."

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:57. Sun rises tomorrow 4:55.

President Hoover probably knows more about what this country needs just now than any half dozen senators know, but he cannot get anything across without a row being started by some who know very little about anything. Sterrible.

Lauder Has Dimes, But Cannot Obey John D.'s Command

Harry Lauder has a shiny dime from John D. Rockefeller, Sr., who told him the gift was "just in case you ever run out of money."

In the Scotch comedian's extended palm Rockefeller placed a second coin.

"Here's another dime for your wife," he said.

"Thank you, sir."

"And here's a couple for your children," continued the oil magnate.

"Thank you, sir."

"And here are two, three, four dimes for your grandchildren."

Then Rockefeller turned away. Lauder pocketed the dimes. "I'll always keep them," he said. His closest living relative is a niece.

The modern girl never worried about her complexion going flat. She always carries a spare.

Among the little things that count more than big ones are caddies. They usually count about three strokes more.

The automobile has come to stay except in the family that can't keep up with the payments.

New and drastic regulations for the barber trade and beauty operators have been promulgated by the Colorado state board of health. No barber having a communicable disease, the board ruled, will be permitted to serve the public. Shaving mugs were barred. All instruments and tools used must be sterilized for each person. Another rule. Use of sponges, powder puffs and hair brushes, except hair brushes with perforated backs, hair oil, hair cream, hair pomade, shaving brushes are prohibited except those which can be sterilized.

Dr. Sherman Williams, president of the board, says the new regulations are the most drastic in the country.

A man with a good paying job does not like to do jury duty with hundreds of men stand around out of work. However, being chosen as a juror should be considered a compliment and real Americans never duck jury duty if they can possibly do their duty.

MYSTERIES! In one of his "Fables in Slang" George Ade tells about a wife who burned with suspicion because her husband went to numerous lodge meetings. She found that if one pours water over the wrists of a sleeping man he will answer all questions. Thus did she extract from his all the secrets, passwords, rituals and mysteries of all his lodges. The next time he started for a lodge meeting she just watched him with a pitying smile.

Salt won't win a contest, Gandhi. It takes the old pepper.

There are people who do not answer a telephone when it rings and they also do not go to their door when their door bell rings. We can readily see why they do not answer the door bell because they can generally see who is at the door, but why have a telephone and not answer it? Queer, of course.

Some People Never Think Of Painting and Brightening Up Their Homes Until They See Others Doing It. Then They Look In The News for An Advertising Painter and He Gets The Job Right Away.

"In the old days decent women didn't get drunk." Well, what's changed about that?

A lawyer, a biology teacher, a minister, a doctor and a politician sat at a table just to my left, discussing the newspaper business. They didn't see me.

After carefully weighing the matter pro and con, they decided that no self-respecting gentleman could be a newspaper man because all newspaper men had to barter their principles to please the public—or the publisher. I took another look at the group. A month ago a lawyer had refused to defend a communist whose constitutional rights had been invaded by the police because he feared the effect on his practise; the minister during the war had been asked not to mention or quote the Sermon on the Mount because it was too pacifistic—and had acquiesced; the biology teacher, whose favorite reading is Darwin, teaches his classes that God made the world in six days and on the seventh rested; the doctor reported a suicide I'd covered a few years ago as "accidental death" because the victim happened to be president of the bank he owed money; and the talk switched from newspaper men when the politician, an official in the local prohibition league, began telling his friends about his "legger's latest delivery of gin—C. Gallant Warships Start Last "Voyage" To Junk Yard

(International News Service.)
BAY POINT, CONTRA COSTA COUNTY, May 2.—Too old to fight—too old to limp along the foaming wake of the Pacific fleet's trim vessels of today—three of Uncle Sam's most gallant old cruisers of three decades ago have struck their colors.

Battle scarred and worn from years of service on the high seas, they have lowered their flags.

And staunch sea warriors though they were, in their day, they will not even be accorded the glory of a sailor's grave, in their passing.

They are the cruisers, Albany, "Tea Kettle" of the China fleet; and bearer of more than one admiral's pennant; her sister ship, the New Orleans, and last, the old Salem, convoy ship and terror of enemy submarines during the World War.

Unlike other historic vessels of the Navy which have been towed far out to sea and sunk as targets for their sister ships when their days of usefulness were past, the Albany, the New Orleans and the Salem are to be junked.

Already the Albany has partially succumbed to the searing flames of blow torches, and fires deliberately set to burn away her seasoned hull. Bit by bit, every bolt, every rivet and every piece of brass is being tripped from these old vessels, who in their day rode the Seven Seas—pride as they make 'em.

Most ignominious of all, though—after their hulks have been torn apart, the armor of heavy steel will be shipped to a steel plant in Pittsburgh, sold for the trifling sum of $11 a ton, and made into nails, wire and sheet metal.

The history of the three vessels is in part, the history of the United States Navy during the last 33 years. The Albany was built at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, and launched for the Brazilian Republic in 1897.

Before she could be delivered to the South American republic, the Spanish American war broke out.

She was purchased by Uncle Sam and, in company with her sister ship, the New Orleans, she was brought across the Atlantic by a British crew. The two vessels astonished the world at that time by attaining a speed of 21 knots per hour.

Too late to participate in hostilities, the Albany was ordered to the Pacific Coast and later proceeded to Asiatic waters, where she became the flagship of vessels operating in that territory.

Until 1909 she remained in these waters when she was ordered to Nicaragua as the flagship of the "mosquito" fleet to protect American interests during the uprising in the stormy southern republic. At the close of the insurrection, she was sent to the Far East and remained there until the close of the world war, when she was "retired."

The history of the New Orleans and the Salem is also filled with romance of the seas.

The Salem, a light cruiser, equipped with four 5-inch guns and two 3-inch rifles ended her Navy career with the signing of the Armistice. During the war she had been engaged in convoy duty, protecting American troop ships passing through submarine zones.

With the end of the war, the Salem—like the Albany—was mustered out, "too old for active service."

Judge Urges Safety In Radio Broadcasts

(International News Service.)
LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Judge Dudley S. Valentine of the municipal court traffic division has taken to radio talks and court lectures in an effort to decrease the number of automobile fatalities in this section.

"One thousand people in Los Angeles county are doomed to die this year, unless drivers awaken to their responsibilities and pilot their cars with the intention of saving lives," the judge declares, in his broadcasts. "There were 600 deaths in 1928 and 794 in 1929, and it is only by drastic reversal of the present careless attitude that the total may be held under 1,000 this year."

Still, the young lady may have been right when she described enthusiastically the Grand Canyon as "perfectly gorgeous."—The Savannah Morning News.

WOMEN GIVEN 9 RULES ON HOW TO KEEP SPOUSES

(International News Service.)
DEL MONTE, Cal., May 2.—Members of the San Francisco District Federation of Women's clubs, in convention assembled here heard nine rules laid down to them by Miss Jenrie Partridge, past president of the City and County Federation of San Francisco, which were:

Guaranteed to keep husbands happy!

They are:

2. Never make a husband dry dishes.

3. Husbands should take wives out two evenings a week, but be allowed to remain at home the other five.

4. Wives should pay rent and butcher bills before buying finery.

5. Wives' mothers should not be allowed around the house on Sundays or holidays.

6. If a husband likes to talk, listen to him.

7. Wives should ask a husband's advice on everything.

8. Being dependent and clinging to fine, but not too clinging.

9. Always make a husband think you think he is a lion in courage and a Napoleon in statesmanship.

Discuss Importance Of Preacher's Wife

(International News Service.)
BOSTON, May 2.—The importance of a preacher's wife occasioned much discussion among members of the Methodist Conferences in session here.

"A woman is a born organizer, a much better one than a man," declared Prof. Charles M. McConnell, professor of town and country at Boston University's school of theology. "It is this ability," he continued, "that is of untold value in the wife of a preacher."

Professor David D. Vaughan, of the social ethics department at Boston University said "The success or failure for a preacher, his wife, and their children are bound up together. Therefore, it is necessary for the wife to help the preacher at all times."

"Every pastor," Dr. Vaughan continued, "should marry so that he may lead a normal life and be able to fully understand human problems."

The oldest graduate of Boston University under the charter, Rev. Samuel M. Beale, of Sandwich, Mass., who is 90 years old, declared that from a lifetime spent in preaching he strongly recommends to theological students of the nation that they find the right kind of wife, for a minister's wife is most important in spelling success or failure to his work.

Congressman Wainwright, of Rye, N. Y., earnest "dry," will not run again.

Anti-dryers boast that he declines to run because he couldn't be elected, although he has been in Congress for eight years.

Politicians think they see in this proof that the wet-dry situation has changed politically.

A lady of the East, wife of a very prosperous owner of inherited money, has bought property in Nevada, convenient to Reno.

Her lawyers declines to discuss for Mr. Cyrus H. K. Curtis' paper a report that the lady is to have the New York town house and an allowance of $1,000,000 a year.

"That allowance would establish a new record, many men in the United States could afford it, and some, unfortunately, would gladly pay it."

Yale Journalism Promotion Given $100,000 Boost

Paul Block, Well Known Publisher Donates $100,000 To Yale University

(International News Service.)
NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 2.—A fund of $100,000 to be used to furnish a program of studies in the field of journalism has been provided by Yale University by Paul Block, of New York, according to announcement by President James R. Angell here today.

"An important part of the plan is the establishment of a series of lectures by men prominent in the newspaper world who in addition to their public addresses, will be available for conference with students and for collaboration in courses bearing on the subject of the press," according to Dr. Angell.

"The plan does not contemplate development of courses of vocational nature. But is expected to give graduate and undergraduate students clearer understanding of the role of the press in modern life."

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

ferred at so many hands is still strong upon these simple peasants.

"Early this morning—just as the sun was breaking over the mountains of the barancas—I looked out of my window to see a penitente crawling to church."

"He was crawling on his knees. On his shoulders was an enormous cross of timber, probably from a wrecked railroad bridge. The crossed timbers were at least eight inches thick."

"The penitente could barely lift the weight. He would crawl a few feet at a time; then gather his strength for another crawl. His Indian face, with low forehead and hair like fur, was lightened by an expression of rapture."

"At the hour of the procession of the palms the church was full to overflowing."

"On the old tiled pavement in front of the hand-hewn plank door knelt the peasants. Each carried a wisp of palm, held with one hand directly in front of his face. Some of the peons had entwined their palms from into tiny plaited crosses of exquisite workmanship. Others had made their palm leaves into tiny bouquets with a small wild flower that looked like lilies of the valley."

"The blind and the sick. Tiny babies with horrible distorted, bulging, blind eyes, bright in the arms of little girls scarcely older than listlessly and hopelessly offering them for a miracle if the good saints cared to bother."

"The procession of the palms made its way down through the crowded aisles—a sea of Indian faces seen through tiny screens of hand-held palms. Inscrutable. Immovable faces. I watched a little girl sitting in front of the church. She did not move a muscle for the best part of an hour."

"Down the aged, foot-worn stone steps from the terrace of the church into the Sunday morning market."

"Beans spread out on grass mats, sandals, tortillas in which correspond to our hot dog stands—counters with junk spread out for a sale—a single huge spur of tarnished silver that once adorned the heels of a Spanish cavalier; a long, rusted artillery saber with an ivory hilt with brass gorges; matchboxes, daggers, cane-cutting knives."

"In the markets of Tepic they make a lot of noise, vending their wares; but this old town is Indian—Indian with an occasional child with blond hair—throw-backs to the days of the fighting Goths. This market is silent, patient and immovable."

Buys $2,490,000 Worth Of Atmosphere

(International News Service.)
NEW YORK, April 2.—With no question of radio or aviation involved, pure, undefiled atmosphere is bringing $2,490,000 in New York today. The problem of light and ventilation in Manhattan's sky-scraper canyons has become so acute that builders today are finding it to their advantage to "buy" air as well as land in putting up new office buildings. The 45-story Nelson Tower, tallest building in the Pennsylvania zone and scheduled for completion this year, has been assured of perpetual light and air by Julius Nelson, the owner. He "bought" 2,800,000 cubic feet of air to be sure of it. By one means of calculation it cost him $2,490,000.

The cubic foot value of the air which Nelson bought solely as a guarantee of future light and ventilation was figured by taking the cube root of the 20,000 square feet of land which he purchased for his building and the 560 foot height of his tower. The land and building represent a $10,000,000 investment. Thus the 560 foot height and the 20,000 square foot base would give him 11,200,000 cubic feet at $2.20 per cubic foot. But he is only using 15,000 square feet of the land, leaving 5,000 square feet for light and air protection. As no building will rise on this 5,000 square feet, it can be figured that this air is dead loss, but bought and paid for.

Rehabilitation Of Criminals First Is Order

More Important Than Turn-
Goods

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Placing the restoration of the criminal to society above his earnings in the production of prison made goods was the outstanding conclusion adopted by the Eastern-Southern Conference on State Institutional Labor recently held at Richmond, Va., at which the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry was represented. A report of the special committee adopted by the conference, just received by Secretary Peter Glick, contains the following:

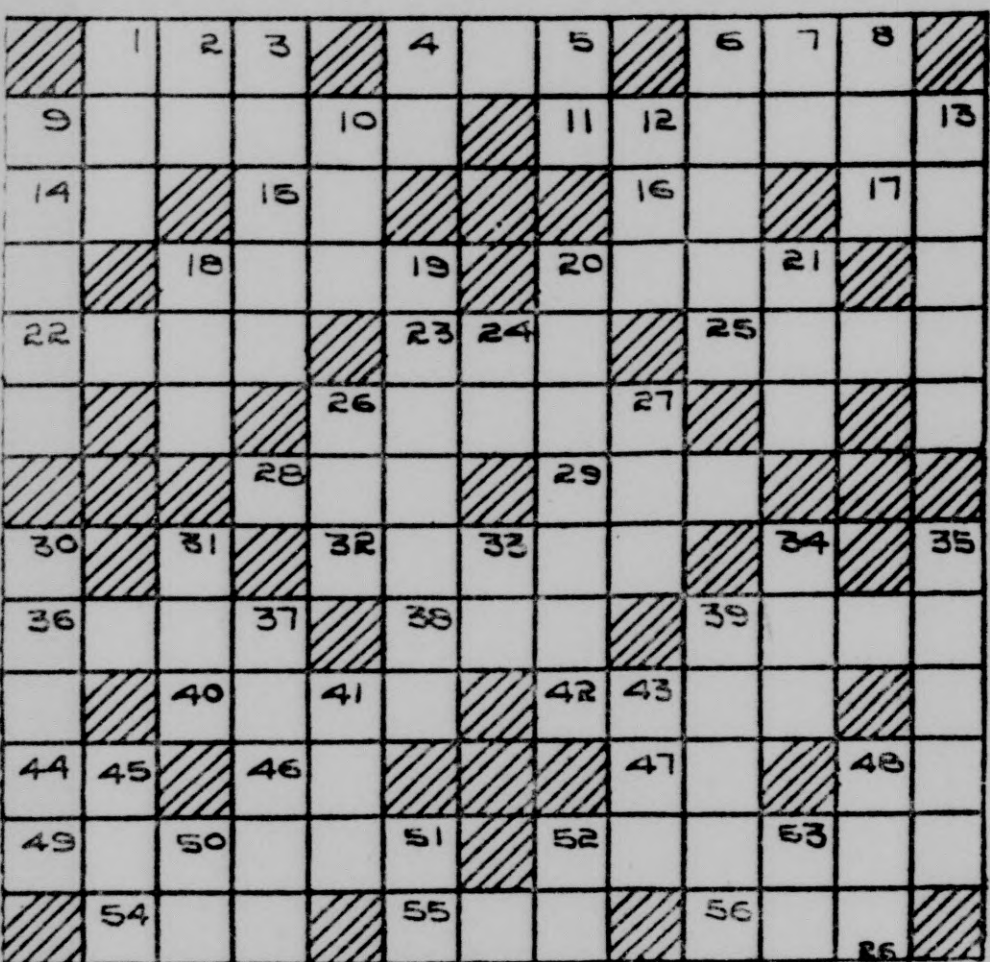

"It seems obvious to the committee that the public can acquire the best protection in the long run by the restoration of the criminal to society on a social basis, that the rehabilitation of the prisoners should really assume the place of first importance in any schedule of prison organization, and that his training with a view to his return to social life should not be considered as secondary to his direct earnings in the manufacture of products while he is segregated in a correctional institution."

"It is highly important that prisoners should be furnished with occupations both as a matter of training and in order to protect their mental and physical health. We believe that to organize a correctional system intelligently on this basis will require a careful survey of the potential market in order to indicate just what industries should be introduced, and to what extent they should be developed and, as far as will be necessary, a certain standardization of prison-made goods should be adopted in order that the prison-made products may be acceptable to the possible purchasers."

"The committee, therefore, recommends that each state proceed to make a careful survey of the potential market for prison-made goods and products within its borders, at the same time taking into consideration the training of the prison inmates. The committee feels that organization of prison industries under the state system will make for a great diversification of products in each institution and will tend to distribute the products over a great number of lines or commodities and afford much better opportunities for training of the prison inmates."

SIMPLE, AIN'T IT?
"I am a woman of few words," announced the baughty mistress to the new maid. "If I beckon with my finger, that means, come."
"Suits me, mum," replied the girl. "I'm a woman of few words myself. If I shake me head, that means, 'I ain't comin'.'"—Sidmouth Observer.

Mrs. Great Water Beetle did not believe in ghosts, that much was certain.

"If I were you, Mayfly, I wouldn't tell the first stranger I met tales that are not true!" snapped she. "I've been in this world a long, long time and never yet have I seen a Mayfly overcoat dance in the breeze. Have you, husband?"

"To tell the truth, wife of mine, I haven't." Mr. Great Water Beetle patted his spouse with a claw. "But then we spend all our days in the pool. How can we see all that is going on in the world outside? Just the same, were I a land creature once twilight came, I should take mighty good care to keep away from an old overcoat any Mayfly had left behind it."

"Silly old thing." In spite of herself, Mrs. Water Beetle snickered. "I'm glad I've got better sense than to be afraid of nothing at all. Mark my words! An empty overcoat never moves from where its shed unless the wind blows it."

On the instance the discussion began, Mayfly had soared away. Now back she flew, flitting her silver wings.

"I believe in ghosts!" said she. "Ooh! When I think of the very case in which I lived and left on a stalk rising into the air as I sink to earth, it makes me shiver."

"Oh dear, oh, that reminds me!" exclaimed Mrs. Great Water Beetle, and would not listen to her husband who tried to "shush" her. "This is your last day on earth, Mayfly, isn't it? Too bad, little thing. We three have had some fine times together under the water. But of course I knew, once you left the pool, you'd never live to see the moon come up. Oh me, oh my, oh me!"

Mrs. Great Water Beetle began to whimper and wail and wipe her eye with her claw.

The finishing touches are being placed on the building now, the cementing of the floors having been started several days ago, while the interior plastering work was started today.

It is understood that the work of installing the equipment in the new building, will not be started by the company until about July 1st.

AMERICAN BORN NOBLEWOMAN IS EXILE FROM HOME

(International News Service)
DENVER, Colo., May 2.—An American born woman, formerly of Denver, is now on her way to Rome, an exile from the United States.

From a foreign land, this woman, Mrs. Laura Vankuran dell'Osso, until a few days ago a member of the faculty of Colorado's Woman's college here, will fight to regain admittance to the land of her birth.

A victim of the inflexible immigration laws, she sailed to avoid deportation, friends here said.

Born in Omaha, Neb., as Laura Vankuran, she lost her American citizenship by marrying an Italian nobleman whom she met in Rome in 1920. Later she separated from her husband and, following his death opened the dell'Osso palace in Rome as a chaperone to American girls studying and visiting there.

Prof. H.H. Garrison, dean of the conservatory of music at Colorado Woman's college here, who had been a student with Mrs. dell'Osso at Syracuse university, invited her to come to Denver to accept a position at Colorado Woman's college.

Last summer she entered the United States with permission to remain six months. When the six months expired she asked for an extension. It was denied by the immigration authorities.

The immigration department tendered her with a summary order to leave the United States by April 15. By sailing voluntarily, Mrs. dell'Osso avoided a penalty of $1,000 and a permanent ban against re-entry.

Professor Garrison explained that Mrs. dell'Osso was the victim of a misunderstanding.

FRANCE PLANS TO HONOR NOTED PRIEST EDUCATOR

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., May 2.—Brother Joseph Janning, 38, instructor of chemistry in the Cathedral Latin high school here, is to be awarded the "Distinguished Service to Education" decoration by the French government, according to a notice which he recently received.

The award is to be made for the service which Brother Janning performed in Japan during the memorable earthquake of 1923. He was an instructor at St. Joseph's college in Yokohama. Two weeks after the catastrophe, Brother Janning continued the school work 300 miles from Yokohama at Sumiyoshi. Classes were held in old buildings without benches and books.

His work was so highly appreciated that he was warmly congratulated by the representatives of many governments, and M. Yvers Meric Bellefor, the French consul in Yokohama, recommended to his government that some honor be paid the teacher in recognition of his work. Only a few Americans have received this decoration for educational service.

What people really want is a religion that will make them feel respectable without requiring them to be respectable.

SAYS CAMELS
NORTH AMERICA

(International News Service)
PASADENA, Calif., May 2—Although ice hundreds of feet thick once covered what is now the northern United States, man lived through those freezing years and left evidences of his existence for modern scholars to study.

That is the declaration of Dr. Chester Stock, professor of Paleontology at California Institute of Technology.

Dr. Stock said that man survived at least one of the ice ages which are well marked in the geological records of America. Recent additions to the evidence of early mankind have been found in the southwest, New Mexico, Utah, Nevada and Arizona have yielded important discoveries linking the savage ancestors of mankind with well known types of extinct animals. Geology records accurately the time these animals were alive.

A University of Chicago expedition recently discovered the fossil skull of a camel near Fillmore, Utah. This skull came from an animal far different from the modern camels which the United States army imported from Arabia in the 60's as pack animals.

Because their hoofs were too tender for the sharp flinty rocks of the Arizona deserts, the camels were turned loose by the soldiers.

For years the descendants of the original camels were hunted for food by the Apache Indians. They are now exterminated.

Some of the camel skulls are still found occasionally. But they are a modern breed.

The fossil skull, Dr. Stock said, was a type of pre-historic camel which came to America when this land was connected to Asia. The Aleutian island chain represents the sunken volcanic peaks of the peninsula that once linked Alaska and Siberia.

Over that bridge of land, according to scientists, many forms of life drifted to America.

DAMAGED PLANE HITS STEEL MILL

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 2.—His deafness unimpaired but with a thrilling experience added to his life, D. Allen Dittman, of Waynesburg, Pa., returned to his home today to tell his friends about his airplane ride.
Dittman yesterday hired a Curtiss-Wright Flying Service plane to take him up several thousand feet and to dive toward the ground suddenly, thinking it would improve his hearing. Chester Pickup, 26, of McKeesport, an instructor, was the pilot.
Pickup soared up until he reached an altitude of 12,000 feet. There according to agreement, he nosed the ship down at a speed of 140 miles an hour.
The terrific pressure shattered the glass in the windshield, striking the pilot above the eye and causing him to lose control. A part of the tail was blown away and then a wing "folded up."
Both men were equipped with parachutes and the pilot jumped, ordering Dittman to follow him. The noise, however, did not get out until the plane was within 400 feet of the ground.
The plane crashed into the roof of No. 1 open-hearth furnace of Carnegie Steel Company, Duquesne. Pickup, unhurt, landed on the B. & O. railroad tracks while Dittman suffered slight lacerations when he scraped on a row of ingot molds as he landed in the steel company's yards.

Zoning Law However Prevents

When council convened in formal session at city hall today, R. A. Bailey said he owns a lot in the vicinity of East Washington street and Maryland avenue which he can dispose of should a gasoline and oil company be allowed to construct a service station on which they would spend $15,000 or $20,000. Council referred the request to committee.

Bailey said that under existing conditions it would be useless for him to erect a residence or storehouse on the lot and said that he could sell the lot for $5,200 should the company which wants it be permitted to erect a service station. He pointed out that there is another gasoline station in the vicinity and said he had ac-part. There was a swish and a click as one mail bag slid back down the floor of the "trap", while another was seen uncannily shooting upward to the door in the floor of the plane in the demonstrations carried out in Washington.

In every test made at Hoover Field, there was not a single instance in which the performance was not repeated smoothly, instantly and perfectly.

The tests were made in all kinds of weather conditions and with varying winds.
A meeting is to be called here soon for representative citizens for the purpose of discussing plans for installation of the device to provide a mail service for New Castle and those who are backing the project are hopeful that success will crown their efforts.

D. Roy Bradford, proprietor of the New Castle Airport, has offered the use of his field for the installation of the device free of charge, and has also promised to assist in financing the venture, which it is said, will cost approximately $2,400.00.

Bailey pointed out that council itself is a court of last resort inasmuch as it passed the zoning ordinance. Council referred the matter to committee after advising Mr. Bailey to make an effort to secure the nearby property owners' consent for such a building.

NEW AIR MAIL PICK-UP DEVICE PROVES ITSELF

ted cylindrical metal "thimble," whose open end fits precisely into the "muzzle" of the cannon, while the cradle and beam are drawn back into the compressed springs and the load is ready to be "catapulted."

The pick-up plane is equipped with a simple automatic reel from which hangs down through a trapdoor in the cabin floor, an 8-inch steel cable, extending 100 feet to a 3-inch metal ball. Inside the plane, the mail sacks to be delivered into the "trap" are attached to this ball by a short breakaway. The reel unwinds the cable and drops ball and pouch down as far as desired, the pilot flying over the "trap" so that they swing into the open "mouth," the slot steering the cable so that they shoot to the circular hole at the apex, where the break-wire releases the load onto the floor of the "trap." The metal ball proceeds through the barrel of the "cannon," touching a trigger, which releases the "catapult" enters the "thimble," which gives it a grip on the outgoing load carried into the air.

The "catapult" throws the departing load upward and outward in the direction the airplane is traveling a split second before the hoisting cable straightens out with its load. The reel in the airplane, wound by hand by a mail clerk in the forward cockpit in the tests, but designed for automatic operation by motor, pulls the caught-up load into the plane cabin in less than thirty seconds.

In actual operation, with the airplane traveling at eighty miles an hour, the double performance of taking and leaving the mail bags was too fast for the eye to follow for the most

Parents Owe Apologies To Children

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

In order to answer some questions which may be bothering you, which are sometimes asked by mail, let me say: I have one wife and three children. The girl of fourteen, a shaded blonde, is sandwiched in between two dark-headed boys, one seven and the other sixteen. We all live together in the same little house.

Yes, I've tried everything but the mange cure, and still I suffer from draughts.

If I were one and one-third times as old as I am now, I should have lived just fifteen years less than three quarters of a century.

Q. Is it permissible for parents to air their disagreements before their children?

A. Contrary to the constitution of the United States, parental disagreement does not "insure domestic tranquility." Furthermore, it is hard enough for children to get along with parents who can't get along with each other, without having to be dragged into their quarrels. If we want our children to find it easy to acquire a few good habits we shall try to act in their presence as if we were one, and have our little word fights when they are not around.

Q. Do you approve all the fannies?

A. No, but most of them. If I had to take all of none I should take them gladly, with the hope to be a little more sympathetic with my children; to learn to laugh at my own egotism, and to say less often mean things to my family and other people.

cident to adolescence in these columns.

Q. How can you impress a boy of eleven that good table manners are important?

A. There is no magic means. Quit fussing about manners. Make yourself interesting and lovable at the table. Observe good manners yourself. When he does particularly well praise him. If some specific thing he does is repellent, tell him two hours before the dinner period and announce that he will have to finish his meal away from the family when it is repeated. The keep your word. Deal with one thing only, ignoring all the others for the time being.

STOP CONSTIPATION AT THE START

You May Pay If You Don't

When you realize that about 90% of all sickness begins with constipation, you won't want to take chances. If you have the symptoms—bad breath, coated tongue, always tired—put a stop to them now!

But do it the natural way. Not with pills and drugs, which give but temporary relief and must be taken in increasing doses. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—an appetizing deliciously flavored cereal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN sweeps the system clean of wastes and impurities. Its action is natural; the roughage carries with it the poisons which clog your system.

In addition, ALL-BRAN is rich in iron. Scientific research shows that nearly all this iron goes into the blood, making it give the rich glow of healthy color.

You'll like ALL-BRAN. Ready-to-eat with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Physicians recommend it. And we guarantee it to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. Two tablespoons daily—with every meal, in recurring cases.

Start now! Today, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers in the red-and-green package. Served in hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Mr. Plunkett, it was revealed, had given Harry a dime but refused him a quarter.

A month ago Harry blackened both eyes of a mere 62-year-old boy in an alley fight. He was arrested at that time also.

Harry and Plunkett drew $10 fine each today.

NOTICE To Local Housewives:

Ordinary City Water and Soaps Will Not Clean Dishes Thoroughly ... Because Water Is Too Hard

For best results in any home washing just add this new water-softening cleanser to soap and water. Takes 1/4 the usual amount of soap—saves 1/2 the time and effort.

Women here are discovering an easy, inexpensive way to avoid the greasy film on dishes and greasy scum in dish pan that follows washing in this hard water. They claim amazingly fine results.

This new discovery is not a soap—but a water-softening cleanser that gives any soap four times its cleansing efficiency by turning "hard" water into "soft".

What It Is

It is a preparation called Climalene that you add to your washing water. Just a tablespoon or two.

Instantly, it takes all the harshness out of that water. Makes it soft as rain water.

At the same time, due to certain bland cleansing agents, it instantly dissolves all dirt, stains and grime. And thus cuts washing time ONE-HALF or more.

Use the soap or soap flakes you ordinarily do. Then see for yourself the amazing results. During 1929, women used over 24,000,000 packages of Climalene for washing, for cleaning and in the dish pan.

Laboratory Proved

To assure results to you, we buy fine things, lingerie and delicate fabrics, costly china. Then by repeated washings, try to spoil or fade them. Consider, please, what those things mean to you. Consider, too, that the minute you put this creation into water, all harshness is taken away—your hands protected from roughness, made soft, smooth and white. Then try it.

Remember the name—Climalene. Your grocer has it. Sold only in 10c and 25c packages.

College Night At Dinner Club

Westminster Faculty And

WINTER'S SOCIAL SEASON CLOSURES

Closing the winter season of social activities, the Consistory Dinner Club held its monthly dinner dance in the Cathedral Thursday evening, with approximately 750 guests present. Because of the fact that other arrangements made for tonight would interfere with the dinner-dance being held on the regular evening, it was found necessary to put it ahead one night, but the change in the night affected the attendance not at all. It was Westminster Night for the dinner club and the musical conservatory of Westminster College provided the entertainment. Not only was the program one of merit, but it gave the guests an insight into the calibre of work being done in Westminster that they had not had before. President W. Charles Wallace was the chairman of the evening.

Dance And Cards
Dancing and cards followed the service of the dinner with H. Stewart of Sharon and Mrs. W. Seidel of Ellwood City winning the prizes at bridge.

Following is the program presented by the students and faculty of Westminster College.

The success of the dinner dances of the Consistory Dinner Club has been due in a large measure to the work of Hon. William J. Moffatt who organized and has directed the activities of the club, as general chairman. Associated with him have been a group of committee men who have functioned splendidly and the two years of existence of the club have seen many enjoyable programs.

Large Attendance

The attendance on Thursday evening brought the total guests entertained in the two years of the club's existence to 13,416. Figures compiled by A. B. Street, secretary of the organization show the following totals of attendance.

The Spirit Of Service

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

"The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."—Matthew 20:28.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard with which our lesson begins will be understood only as we note the different spirit of those laborers whom the householder hired "early in the morning" as compared with the spirit of the ones hired at the third, sixth, ninth and 11th hours. To all these latter it was sufficient for the householder to say, "Whatever is right, I will give you." Not so with the first ones hired. They demanded an "agreement," and only "when he had agreed" to their terms would they go into the vineyard. To his "whatsoever is right," they replied, "Nothing doing, we turn no spoke until we have an agreement." Of this they were reminded in the evening when they saw the householder rewarding equally with themselves all who trusted to his fairness for their rewards, as he said to them, "Didst thou not agree with me?" The spirit in which they served was different from the spirit of those who respected the householder, for they had regarded only for their reward as per agreement.

Third Announcement of the Cross. At this point Jesus made his third clear announcement of his crucifixion, this time giving fuller details of the mocking, scourging and crucifixion, but adding, as he had done before, the prophecy of the resurrection the third day. Upon this fuller and clearer foreshadowing of the cross he should have met with the profoundest sympathy of his friends. But their attitude shows that they were walking on a plane far below the high level of unselfish, serving love on which he was living. They were seeking thrones for themselves, he was seeking a cross on which to die for them.

Ambition for Pre-eminence. "Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons (James and John), worshipping him and desiring a certain thing of him." This ambitious mother sought to steal a march on the other disciples by guaranteeing for her sons the two places of pre-eminence in the kingdom. He was talking to them of a cross, and they were scheming for thrones. His answer was that such pre-eminence was not handed out in that fashion, but must be arrived at through drinking the same cup of sorrow he must drink, and passing thru the same baptism of service he was passing through.

Greatness Through Service. That the rest of the 12 were daunted with the same stick is evident from their indignation that James and John had just gotten ahead of them in making their request. So Jesus called them all to him and spoke to them of the greatness and glory of serving others rather than lordling it over them. "Whoever will be great among you, let him be your minister. And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant; even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many." Self seeking is heathenish; self denying is Christ-like. The way to the city called "Success" is always routed via the valley called "Service."

(The international uniform lesson for May 4 is Matt. 20:17-28, the subject being "Promotion in the Kingdom" and the Golden Text, Matt. 20:28: "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.")

Swiss Government Protests Tariff
High Tariff On Watches Set Up By America Causes Swiss To Plan Auto Boycott

(International News Service)
GENEVA, May 2.—While the press here today launched an attack on the United States for the 300 per cent tariff increase on watches under the new tariff schedule, the Swiss National Chamber of Commerce decided to institute a boycott against United States products, particularly automobiles.

The chamber declared itself ready to open a tariff war.

The Swiss Federal Council announced it would lodge protest with Washington.

Uses Shotgun For Robber At Store

MEYERSDALE, Pa., May 2.—Harold Long, 18, is in a critical condition at the Wenzel hospital here suffering from gunshot and shattered glass wounds in the back and hip, the result of having been shot by G. W. Beale during an alleged robbery of Beale's store.

Long's left arm was so badly shattered that amputation was necessary. Several bits of window glass penetrated far into the flesh.

Application for a pardon for Frank Elisco, who was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Andy Di Russo, is shortly to be made to the board of pardons. Petition for Elisco is now being circulated and will be presented to the pardon board.

Elisco was convicted in February, 1928 and was sentenced to three years in the Western penitentiary. At the trial of the case it was shown that Elisco and Di Russo had been members of an automobile party that had been driving about South New Castle and drinking during an entire night.

There had been trouble between Elisco and Di Russo and toward morning when the auto was stopped not far from the New Castle hospital. It was claimed that Elisco, who was driving, had been dragged from the wheel during a quarrel and that Di Russo was shot. Elisco pleaded self defense at the trial of the case.

Elisco has a wife and six children, who are now being partially supported by the county. It is claimed that Elisco has been sufficiently punished, and that if he is granted a pardon, it will be possible for him to support his wife and family.

BOYS DESTROY ARC LIGHT WITH STONES

Complaint was made to the police Wednesday night that some boys were throwing stones at an arc light at Lafayette and Laocok streets in an apparent attempt to destroy it. Officer Hagan was detailed and came upon two boys in the vicinity, who admitted to having thrown stones but claimed to have been throwing at another boy, who had stoned them. They were ordered in before the mayor on Saturday morning.

County Medics In Monthly Meeting

Discussion Of Medical Subjects
Comprises Society Program Last Night

A large number of physicians were present last night for the regular monthly meeting of the Lawrence County Medical Society, held in the society's room at the Y. M. C. A. Featuring was the impromptu discussion on various subjects related to the medical profession.

The society accepted, with regret, the resignation of Dr. E. M. Parlett as censor and member. Dr. Parlett has already gone to California where he assumes a new position. Dr. L. W. Wilson was named as censor to succeed him.

Discussion also centered about the pre-school examination of children, and the society expressed its willingness to lend its support to the cause in every way.

Wins Election; Fines Loser For Slander

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Ill., May 2.—Air-thin slander.

That is the charge recently brought against Frank Broucek, defeated Democratic candidate for Police Magistrate of Berwyn, who was fined $10 on two accounts for "slander over the radio" by John H. Erhardt, winner in the race. This is the first case of its sort ever tried in Illinois.

Movie fans will not dispute Will Hays' commandments of "See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil," but they reserve the right to think evil of the pictures.

Students Expose "Shady" Ticket Deal

(International News Service)
BERKELEY, Cal., May 2.—A shady ticket deal has been exposed by the student newspaper of the University of California.

Stanford University and California University entered into a contract involving sale of tickets to their annual "Big Game."

California received 65 per cent of all tickets. But—the student newspaper points out—when the game is played at Stanford the Californians always will sit on the shady side of the stadium.

Two pounds of raisins.
Four tomatoes.
Four slices of bread.
After the gastronomic orgy Maier left the scene munching a piece of candy.

Historic Church Will Be Rebuilt

DETROIT, May 2.—One of the landmarks of Detroit, St. Aloysius Catholic church, built when Washington boulevard was a wide avenue hedged by waving shade trees, but now closed in by towering office buildings and hotels, is being torn down.

The church, grown too small and too old for the crowds of today, will be replaced with a new edifice. Its ancient brick walls have given way to new ones of modern construction, and a marble altar will take the place of the old wooden structure that served for more than half a century.

The owner of a summer cottage has no special objection to distant relatives, as such.

April Weather Is Near Normal Mark

Weather conditions during the month of April were the nearest to normal that they have been for many years, both in point of temperature and precipitation.

The mean maximum temperature during the month averaged 59.9 degrees, while the mean minimum temperature averaged 36.7. The mean average for the month was 48.3 degrees, which was but a half degree below the normal average for the month. The highest temperature recorded was 86 degrees on April 12, while the lowest temperature was 24 degrees on the 23rd. The greatest daily range was 39 degrees on April 15.

The precipitation during the month was 2.93 inches which was exactly normal. The greatest rainfall in 24 hours was recorded on April 7, when a fall of .64 inches was noted. There was recorded on April 7, when a fall of .64 inches was noted. There was recorded on April 7, when a fall of .64 inches was noted.

The mean maximum temperature during the month averaged 59.9 degrees, while the mean minimum temperature averaged 36.7. The mean average for the month was 48.3 degrees, which was but a half degree below the normal average for the month.

In April of 1929, 7.13 inches of rainfall was recorded, while the temperature a year ago was one degree above the normal mark. Only 2.8 inches of snowfall was noted in April of 1929.

The river stage during April this year averaged 7.4 feet, while a year ago, the average was 9.1 feet, which was accounted for by the excess precipitation.

given. Some said six feet, some 10, some 20. The fact was, as the professor later pointed out, there was no fact at all on the building, and never had been.

Strange, you say? Not at all. That's what we are doing every day. We see what we wish to see. If we are against prohibition we are willing to swear that by all we can see it is a failure. If we are for prohibition we are willing to testify that by all we can see it is a success. To see things as they are requires a great gift of mind and spirit. It requires unusual honesty and poise.

POETRY
Speaking of man as a machine, as Mr. Darrow does, one wonders why hundreds of books of poetry continue to be published every year. Poetry is strange fodder for a machine.

YOUR BY-PRODUCT
Your main output may be the business you own or the job you hold. But we all have a by-product. It is our spare time. We can make a wonderful intellectual profit out of our by-product. The Ford Motor Co. last year sold more than $19,000,000 worth of by-products. What we think of as the main job, our routine work, is a long way from being all there is in life.

Airplane Service To Passion Play

(International News Service)
MUNICH, May 2.—The South German Luft Hansa will maintain during this year's performances of the Passion Play in Oberammergau an airplane service from Hamburg and Bremen to Munich to connect with each incoming steamer. Owing to the lack of suitable territory in and around Oberammergau no airport could be laid out in the village itself. From Munich the passengers will be taken to Oberammergau by motorbus in one hour. Passengers arriving at one of the ports in the forenoon will hence be able to reach Oberammergau the same day.

SAY FUTURE OF COUNTRY LIES IN CARE OF BABES

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 2.—America's future man-power should be considered along with naval disarmament if the United States is to meet the years to come with optimism, according to a bulletin issued here by the American Research Foundation.

"Whether we have warships or not, this is the time to give the deepest consideration to our future man-power," the bulletin warned. "The can only be through today's babies, as the last world struggle demonstrated beyond argument. And right now if the United States were to engage in warfare with another great nation, one out of every four men volunteering for service would have to be rejected for physical reasons. "The present physical fitness of men of military age has advanced little since 1917, when 2,910,706 men in this country examined for military service before Dec. 15 of that year, 730,000 or 29.1 per cent were rejected for physical reasons, while 468 out of every 1,000 men examined had defects ranging from flat feet to tuberculosis and disease caused by malnutrition in their youth. Most of the physical misery and unfitness noted in the medical records of the draft could most assuredly have been prevented in infancy and should be in the future by timely and regular physical examination of the nation's babies by physicians.

"Rickets, curvature of the spine, malnutrition, defects of the bones and joints and those of the sense organs are among the more common defects that might readily be prevented by regular attention in the early months of life. The mothers of the nation are well-meaning and capable as far as their knowledge goes, but even apparently well babies should be under constant direction of a doctor.

"Whether or not the efforts of the world naval disarmament conference spell the end of war for years to come, we should be equipped with sturdy manhood. America should be working for peace, but prepared for war, and the babies today are even more important than the battleships."

LETTER FROM SUICIDE USED AS LEGAL WILL

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2.—A farewell letter written to her divorced husband, Ralph J. Button, just before she committed suicide, was accepted by the state supreme court as the will of Mrs. Grace Edna Button of San Francisco.

Mrs. Button killed herself on August 26, 1928, having been divorced in the previous April.

Her letter addressed her husband as "Dear, dear Daddy," told him that he could have her house and all things of value in it, and was signed "Love from Muddy."

Button sought to have the letter probated as a will, but the San Francisco superior court refused to accept it.

Reversing the superior court, the supreme court held that the salutation in the letter was a sign of love and affection, that the statement concerning the house and other property was testamentary and that the expression "Love from Muddy" constituted a legal signature.

The superior court was ordered to accept the letter as a valid will. Mrs. Button in the letter admitted that she had been to blame for the rift with her husband, and expressed the hope that she would "meet him in Heaven."

Arkansas Legionnaires To Spend Fund Of $150,000

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Mass., May 2.—A fund of $150,000 is being raised by the State of Arkansas, and the business men there for the Legionnaires of Arkansas, who are coming to Boston next October for the annual Convention of the American Legion, the biggest part of the money to be used for conducting an exhibit in Boston and enroute of Arkansas products.

This $150,000 sum is within $25,000 of the amount set by the Convention Committee in Boston for the entire expenses of the convention.

The trip of the Arkansas Legionnaires was to be an extended one, the delegation leaving for Boston 10 days before the opening of the convention while a similar period of time will be given the return trip to their home state.

Details of the program became known here through the visit to Convention Headquarters of Col. Elgan C. Robertson, a prominent resident of Arkansas, who came here to act for the legion members of his state.

Not all the Arkansas money will be spent for its exhibit of products however, as they plan to play a prominent part in the Legion program. Five drum corps and bands, including the famous women's "Blue Bird Drum Corps" of Fort Smith, Ark., will come with the delegation and many features are being arranged by them.

Arkansas is the home of O. L. Bodenhamer, the National Commander of the American Legion, and the delegation is bending every effort to make a high showing for the state.

In regard to their exhibit they plan to bring with them a number of their state products such as cotton in its raw state, oil, fruits, diamonds cut by their workers and the like. On the trip north they will make a special trip through Detroit, Niagara Falls, Montreal, and Vermont stopping at various cities enroute. In these places a truck parade featuring a symbolic exhibition of their products will be staged.

At Boston, however, a large display will be arranged in quarters to be procured here and the exhibit will be kept open from the time of the arrival of the delegation to its departure.

The return trip to Arkansas will be by way of New York, Washington and Virginia.

THE BEST TITLE

A Russian woman recently renounced the titles of princess and countess to become a plain American citizen.

"It is good to be an American," she said. "The American people are so free and good-natured and kind. I love them and love America."

Too bad we are not all good-natured and kind. But the princess is partly right at least. The title of American citizen is the best in the way of titles that the world holds.

SEEING NEW YORK—AND LIFE

A group of college girls arrived in New York the other day. But they weren't there to see the ordinary sights. They were there to visit hospitals, trade schools, homes for girls, and other social service institutions. They came from eleven colleges and had been studying economics and social science. Well, it's lucky for a lot of us there are at least a few serious minded folks in the world who care about smoothing up the rough spots in civilization. So many don't care. We owe a great debt of gratitude to those who do.

Disability Rate Among Veterans Shows Increase

Buddy Poppy Sale By Harry L. McBride Post To Aid In Relieving Distress

Veterans Bureau statistics reveal that the number of disabled veterans of the World War is increasing as the men grow older and their powers of resistance finally crumble under the post-war strain of securing a livelihood for themselves and their dependants.

This fact has been evident locally as well as in other portions of the country, and as a result, the 1930 distribution of poppies takes rank as one of the most important activities to be sponsored by the Harry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars of this city.

The sale of V. F. W. Buddy Poppies provides the McBride Post with an available fund for relief work among disabled and needy veterans and their families. The proceeds from the sale of Buddy Poppies makes it possible for the post to administer emergency medical and hospital treatment for veterans unable to secure this care for themselves. The post is also enabled to carry on welfare work among veteran patients at government hospitals in this regional district.

Every year, scores of needy veterans and their dependants are given relief through the V. F. W. poppy fund, administered by a committee of members, within easy access for instant action whenever the emergency arises. In this way, the public has been saved the annoyance of solicitations and pleas for relief contributions throughout the year.

The annual Buddy Poppy drive is the V. F. W. method that makes it possible to "honor the dead by helping the living."

LESS HEAT REQUIRED WHEN AIR IS MOIST

Steel-riveted and Gas-tight
Lennox Torrid Zone Furnace Has Most Practical Humidifier

When air is dry, it must be held at a higher temperature for bodily comfort than when it contains a proper amount of humidity. As the heated air in most homes contains only 12% to 20% relative humidity (which is drier than the Sahara Desert) it follows that extra fuel is being burned to maintain a comfortable temperature. This extra fuel is one of the savings effected by the Lennox Torrid Zone Warm Air Furnace. Because the Torrid Zone humidifier has twice the evaporating area right inside the casing of ordinary water pans and is positioned for most efficient evaporation.

Extra fuel is also saved through the design of the Torrid Zone firepot and the oversized radiator. Combustion is more thorough and more heat is squeezed from the smoke and gases before they go up the chimney. This remarkable furnace is designed for hard or soft coal, coke, lignite, wood, gas or oil—and is built to outlast two or three ordinary furnaces. See the particular model for your home and your fuel. Made by the Lennox Furnace Company, Syracuse, N. Y.—Marshalltown, Iowa—Toronto, Canada.

LOCAL LADY SAYS TEN HERBS PUT END TO AILMENTS

New Natural Medicine Did Her A World Of Good, At Age Of 76.

Use Ten Herbs, the famous new medicine. Let this amazing compound relieve you of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders, rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness; let it cleanse and tone up your whole system. What Ten Herbs has done for thousands of men and women throughout this section, it should do for you.

"Ten Herbs did me a world of good," said Mrs. Eva Diamond, 76, 824 Morton Street, New Castle. "Your medicine put an end to my ailments, and was very beneficial to me when I was weak and run-down after an attack of flu. I had been troubled with neuritis in my back for a long time. At times I could hardly get around. My liver was not working properly. Dizzy spells came on me, and I lacked ambition. For years I found it necessary to use laxatives."

"The Herbs helped me so much that I am satisfied that the statements of praise for your medicine I have read are true. It rid me of neuritis, and made my liver more active. Constipation was relieved. For years I had been troubled with rheumatism especially in the spring but I did not have a sign of rheumatism last spring, for which I give full credit to Ten Herbs. I can do all my work now, and really enjoy doing it. I found your medicine excellent for cleansing the system and building up strength in general. I will continue to praise Ten Herbs whenever I have an opportunity."

Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

THIRTY-FIVE IN PASSENGER LIST

(International News Service)
FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, May 2.—The giant German dirigible Graf Zeppelin was converted into a private "Air Yacht" for the first time today.

A Swiss businessman, reputed to be a multi-millionaire, chartered the airship for a long journey over the face of Europe. He kept his identity a strict secret.

Under the command of Captain Von Schiller, the Graf took the air at 8:10 a. m. (2:10 a. m. Eastern Daylight time) for its private cruise. Aboard the airship were thirty-five guests of the Swiss millionaire who had accepted his lavish invitation to participate in the first dirigible joyride in history.

Plans called for the airship to spend the day cruising over Swiss territory. All the passengers were aboard at an early hour, and all made efforts to conceal their identities. Arrangements for the trip had been made some weeks previously through officials of the Zeppelin Company.

This will be one of the last short trips the Graf will make before taking off on May 13 for Rio De Janeiro.

Second Installment Of Marble Contest Rules—Method Of Scoring, Told Today; Final Installment Saturday

Today is presented the second installment of rules and regulations for the second city-wide scholastic marbles tournament, in which a host of New Castle girls and boys of 14 years of age and under are expected to participate for prizes.

Thursday night's issue of The News carried the first installment, describing the game of "ringer," and explaining just what equipment will be needed and the plan of play. Tonight the playing regulations and a short explanation of the method of scoring is printed. A third installment in Saturday's issue will sum up the contest rules.

Contestants should read the rules closely.

Playing Regulations

Marbles knocked out of the ring shall be picked up by the player knocking them out. Whenever a marble or shooter comes to rest on the ring line, if its center is outside the ring or exactly on the ring line, it shall be considered out of the ring; if its center is inside the ring, it shall be considered inside the ring.

Player hitting opponent's shooter inside the ring but not knocking it out, shall pick up any marble he chooses, and a shall proceed to shoot. However, he shall not hit same opponent's shooter again until after he hits another shooter or knocking a marble out of the ring, or he comes around to his next turn to shoot.

Player knocking an opponent's shooter out of the ring shall be entitled to all marbles won by that opponent, and opponent whose shooter has been knocked out of the ring is out of the game, "killed." If opponent who was knocked out of the ring has no marbles, player who knocked him out shall not be entitled to pick up a marble for shot.

If the person shooting knocks out two or more marbles, or hits the opponent's shooter and marble, or hits the opponent's shooter, or completes any other combination play, he shall be entitled to all points scored on that shot.

When shooter slips from player's hand, if player calls "ships" and referee is convinced that it is "ships" and

If the shooter did not travel more than 10 inches referee may order "no play" and permit player to shoot. Referee's decision is final.

The game ends when the last marble is shot out.

Scoring

For each marble knocked out by player he shall be credited with score of one. For each time shooter hits shooter of an opponent, and does not knock it out of the ring, he shall be credited with score of one. For each time player knocks opponent out of the ring he shall be credited with all marbles previously scored by his opponents.

Player having credited to him the largest number of marbles at the completion of the game shall be the winner of that game. In games where more than two players are engaged, if two or more players lead with same score, those in tie shall play new game.

Player refusing to continue game, after it is started, shall be disqualified, and if only two players are engaged, the game shall be forfeited to opponent. Score of forfeited game shall be 13-0.

Know Your Fate

The prevalence of kidney troubles gives rise to this question. Why don't you send a sample of the kidney excretion to Dr. Pierce's Clinic in Buffalo, N. Y., for a scientific test to learn whether your kidneys are affected?

The Doctor Pierce Clinic of Urology will make an analysis of the urine without charge.

This is a service of which a great many people are taking advantage today. It helps to keep "tabs" on your general health.

When sending sample for analysis, write us under separate cover, giving a statement and history of your case. Ask any medical questions you wish answered.

NOTE: Dr. Pierce is president of the Invalids Hotel and Dr. Pierce Clinic. He is also the originator of that successful stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, Anuric. At first this was only used by the physicians at the Invalids' Hotel but now you can procure Dr. Pierce's Anuric (in tablet form) in any drug store for 65 cents.

AMOS DIALECT SAVES DRIVER FROM JAIL TERM

(International News Service) NEW YORK, May 2.—If Amos and Andy were not popular, today, Charlie Davis would be in jail. As it is, Charlie Davis, the taxi-driver, has a new lease on life.

Recently Charlie was arraigned in court here, charged with striking a young lady who had been his girl for six years and then had left him for 14 months. When Charlie met his girl he couldn't overcome his furious temper and, as he puts it: "I jes' got so mad I let her have it." For this Judge Mulqueen, who tried the case, sentenced Charlie to four months in the penitentiary.

"Judge, I have a cozy little home," Charlie pleaded with Mulqueen, "do I have to sell out and lose my home now?"

The judge didn't answer him then but Charlie was on his mind that night when he went home. Mrs. Mulqueen turned on the radio after supper and the judge, like thousands of others, listened to the philosophical antics of Amos 'n' Andy. Amos impressed Judge Mulqueen especially because of his way of speaking and his ideas were peculiarly reminiscent of Charlie Davis. The next day Judge Mulqueen called Davis before him.

"I believe you have the same outlook on life that Amos has," the judge told the prisoner, "and I'm going to revoke your sentence. Get a good woman to take care of you when you're through with your work and go ahead and be the good fellow I think you are."

So today, Charlie Davis, the taxi-driver, has a new lease on life.

In a report on the longevity of domestic equipment, Miss Lee placed the life span of the average rug at nine years. A living room chair, on the other hand, may last twelve years if it is not tilted back on its hind legs too often.

Shipping Men Predict Big United States Merchant Marine

By CROSWELL BOWEN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 2.—The American Merchant Marine, in less than ten years, will grace the seven seas as in days of yore when graceful American Clipper Ships, their sails flying, were gently wafted in and out of every port in the world.

This glimpse into the future was seen when the S. S. Santa Clara, soon to make her maiden voyage, made her delivery trip from the shipyards at Camden, New Jersey, to her pier in New York.

On board the brand new luxurious vessel were government officials connected with marine matters, South American diplomats and business executives prominent in the shipping industry. These men were firm in their faith, intent in their belief that in less than ten years the American Merchant Marine will equal if not surpass other merchant marines of the world.

The new 18,000 ton liner Santa Clara will soon go into regular service between New York and South America. She is the firstboat to be built under the Jones-White Act which provides for government financing of 75 per cent of the cost of the ship.

The Santa Clara will clip five days from New York-Valparaiso run and is the fastest American-built ship afloat, attaining a speed of 22 knots. Every room on the ship is an outside one.

International News Service asked a number of men, all of them more or less authorities on the American Merchant Marine, just what the American public may expect in the immediate future.

Their answers follow:

Mr. Jefferson Myers, Commissioner of the United States Shipping Board: "American ships will do more than engage in carriage between America and other countries; they will be all parts of the world on American ships."

Mr. A. H. Denton of the United States Shipping Board, in charge of the financial activities connected with the Jones-White Act: "We have 250 million dollars which we will loan to anyone who wants to build and anyone who wants to build a ship can borrow 75 per cent of the cost of the ship from us."

Jefferson Myers of the United States Shipping Board predicted that within ten years America will have the largest shipping Merchant Marine in the world.

The Minister from Panama, Ricardo J. Alfaro, said: "Many of the ships that pass through the Panama Canal are American ships but we hope that soon they will be American."

The Minister of Ecuador, Dr. E. Fronte La Viteri, said: "America is first in everything and she will be first in the Merchant Marine of the world."

The Minister from Bolivia said: "I will be much more enthusiastic about the American Merchant Marine when Bolivia gets her port."

C. L. Bardo, president of the New York Shipbuilding Co., pointed out that in building ships 82 per cent of the total cost of them was spent on labor, and that the building of ships will do a great deal toward aiding unemployment in the United States.

U. S. TO SPEND 22 MILLION FOR ROADS IN TEXAS

(International News Service)
AUSTIN, Texas, May 2.—The $3,000,000 a year increase in federal road aid for Texas means that it would be possible to build a road extending by airline from Dallas, Texas, to the University of Texas oil fields, half across the colossal state. The federal appropriations increase is for a three-year period.

Governor Dan Moody has explained that the total $22,000,000 federal road aid will be enough for 800 miles of concrete road. In practice, however, the federal funds are supplemented by similar funds raised by counties or road districts. With this triple arrangement, 2,400 miles of road building is in sight for the three years. This is the greatest program ever attempted for Texas.

The increased road appropriations for Texas, Governor Moody said, is believed to be due to the representations made to President Hoover by himself and the Texas State Highway Commissioners when the president called on the states to give an estimate of what public work would be undertaken to stabilize business.

The Texas appropriation is greater than that given to any other state. It can be used only on federal highways, of which there are 11,694 miles in the state.

Prohibition Blamed For Tourist Decline

(International News Service)
ST. THOMAS, Virgin Islands, May 2.—When the average American leaves the United States he gets liquor minded is the opinion prevailing in the Virgin Islands where prohibition is blamed for the tremendous decline in the tourist trade.

Emile A. Berne, president of the St. Thomas Chamber of Commerce, has been quizzing tourists in an endeavor to ascertain the probable cause of the decline and 98 per cent of them gave, in one way or another, the cause as prohibition.

Although tourists steamers touching here are provided with bars, these are sealed by Customs Officers immediately as the ships get into port, thus shutting off the supply to tourists.

The latter then come ashore in the hope of being able to procure liquor but are disappointed to find that the island is dry. They say that they do not want to get liquor illicitly but that when they are in a vacation mood they want to know that they purchase liquor to treat their friends and have a good time themselves, as they do in Havana, Martinique or any of the other foreign ports. This restriction gets them irritable.

Returning to the ship in a bad frame of mind the Cruise Director is requested never to return to this Sahara, so the port is gradually being dropped.

With the islands being advertised twice as much as heretofore only about 50 per cent of the tourists that formerly touched here are coming now.

Convicts Attempt To Build Still

(International News Service)
SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., May 2.—Construction of a homelike bootlegging plant within the walls of San Quentin prison was balked by guards who became suspicious of two convicts who acted "quarrelsome."

Search of the convicts revealed they had concealed on their persons a small lead pipe and other material that was intended for use in a little distillery.

A gunny sack containing potato peelings and other substances from which alcohol could be gleaned was seized by the guards.

It was thought that the lead pipe, potato peelings and other equipment was found just in time to prevent "cooking of a batch of alcohol."

Lindbergh To Experiment With Powered Sailplanes

By HOMER H. METZ
International News Service
Aviation Editor.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Not content with his triumphs in the fields of practical aviation and motorless flying, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh plans to take up the study of power gliding.

It has been learned here that the flying colonel has ordered a glider weighing 25 pounds and developing 10 horsepower, which he plans to install in the Bowlius Albatross sail plane with which he has been making experiments on the Pacific coast.

It is to be presumed that Lindbergh will attempt to establish a new world's flying record in the craft by using the little engine to carry him from hill to hill so that he can find winds which will carry him upward.

Lindbergh's experiments with the power glider will probably be made in the glider camp of Hawley Bowlius in San Diego. Bowlius, who manufactures gliders, is planning to conduct similar experiments, it is said.

On a recent visit to New York, Bowlius declared:

"We will have nothing but confusion if we go into power gliding before the youth have learned all about gliding without an engine. We must first teach them to glide, and then the next step will be in the direction of motorized flying."

Shortly after Lindbergh made his first flight in a glider, he said:

"I know of no easier way to learn the principles of flight than by gliding."

Lindbergh believes the glider offers a safe, inexpensive way for amateurs, both youths and adults to learn to fly and believes that gliders of today will be the flyers of tomorrow.

The former obscure mail pilot who rode to undying fame in the cockpit of a tiny Ryan monoplane became enthusiastic on the subject of gliders when he visited Bowlius' camp in San Diego. Although he had only intended taking a flight or two in a sailplane, Lindbergh remained in the hilly country for weeks, making experimental flights every day on which the weather was propitious. On his first glider flight, the colonel succeeded in remaining aloft slightly more than 30 minutes.

Mrs. Lindbergh also has become proficient in the art of handling a sailplane, and she probably will make flights in the motorized glider after it has been assembled and tested by her famous husband.

A record for the number of air passengers carried in a single month was made in March by the lines of American Airways, Inc., operating company of the Aviation corporation.

During the month, 6192 passengers were carried on the company's lines, 19.5 per cent more than in February, which reflected the increase in travel with the coming of more favorable spring weather and the growing interest of the public in the faster means of transportation at low rates.

American Airways, Inc., operates the largest system of air lines in the United States, its passenger, mail and express planes flying approximately 20,000 miles daily over more than 7,000 miles of airways.

During March passenger planes flew 312,439 miles over the air passenger routes operated by the company, including the New York-Boston service operated by the Colonial division; the line from Cleveland to Dallas via Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, operated by the Universal and Southern Air Transport divisions, and the Dallas-El Paso route operated by the southern division.

The passenger lists of the company's lines show a rapidly increasing number of persons who are traveling over air to save precious hours of their business day which would be lost by slower means of transportation. The increase in the number of those who ride the air lines again and again is attributed largely to the low passenger rates which have been in effect since shortly after the first of the year.

Numerous salesmen who sell on commissions are using the lines wherever possible to cover more territory in a given time.

The modern girl's taste in boy friends differs not at all from that of her grandmother, according to the answers to a questionnaire taken recently among young people in the Central Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, by Rev. J. Lowrey Fendrich, Jr., pastor of the church. In spite of the pastor's assertion that "the young people are quite possibly and irrevocably headed for the dogs and their actions point out that within another generation our young people will have wrecked civilization," quotations read from letters from young women in the parish showed that the girls still lean toward swains possessing the finer qualities demanding in the tin-type age.

"I am willing to defend the younger generation," Mr. Fendrich stated, "but I admit that they are not all wool and a yard wide."

He cautioned the older people to "hark back to the time when you were 17 or 18 or 21 before making some amazing pronouncement relative to the degeneracy of the younger generation." Quotations from the letters indicated a marked preference on the part of the young women for sincerity, honesty, cleanliness of mind, thoughtfulness, character of mind, thoughtfulness, character and manliness in their young men friends.

Only two girls expressed admiration for good looks, while the others stressed the necessity for neat personal appearance. A pleasing personality is a popular attribute, according to the census, while drinking is abhorred, laziness and conceit condemned. Most of the girls do not care one way or the other if young men smoke, but one young miss declared her preference for a non-smoker "provided that in abstaining he does not act like a martyr." Other outstanding qualities demanded by the young women were "the ability to adjust himself to his environment, a trained mind that the art of pleasing."

What High School Boys Think Of Girls

(International News Service)
DALLAS, Texas, May 2.—What Dallas high school boys say by majority vote.

That if a girl permits one boy to kiss her, ordinarily she will permit another.

Dancing is not harmful, but smoking is.

Prefer that the girl friends do not smoke.

High school boys should not drink liquor.

Most successful men are interested in religious matters.

Have less respect for the girl who allows "petting" than for one who does not.

Most high school students will cheat on examinations if given a chance.

These were generalizations resulting from answers in questionnaires sent to Dallas high school boys.

How unfortunate that the men who know just how many battleships we need turned out to be writers instead of sailors.

MODERATION PREVAILS IN NEW SPRING STYLES

By ALICE LANGELIER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, May 2.—Moderation marks Milady's wear for spring and summer in spite of what one thought was going to happen when the first collections appeared. Careful analysis of new fashions show that exaggeration has been avoided and smart moderation is the rule.

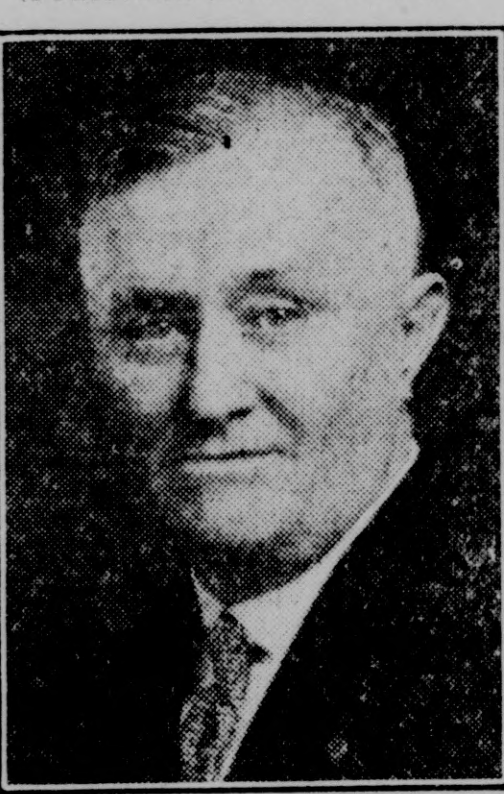

There is not too much skirt nor too little. Clothes fit snugly but are not really tight. They are comfortable and chic at the same time. Fabrics are rough or smooth as one wants them and every color goes so long as it is pretty and becoming.

A most successful daytime ensemble in green and white checked woolen shows this smart moderation. The sleeves of the blouse serve as sleeves to the cape-coat too, the latter having only an elbow-length cape and no other arm covering. The skirt is pleated in clusters and the blouse has a shoulder-yoke.

Bright Pompeian red and beige checked tweed makes another moderation ensemble. The dress has a brief bloused waist and box-pleated flared skirt completed by a girlish cape-coat.

Dora Doby, popular American dancer, has been seen in Paris recently wearing a most "moderate" brown en-Candidate for Assembly.

To the voters outside of the city: Court procedure is a matter of great interest to all citizens and taxpayers. It probably is true that many have not fully realized how much this affects them.

All good citizens want good laws; but there is not much use in having good laws and a court procedure for their enforcement so out of date that the wrongdoer laughs in the face of justice.

The effort to remedy this wrong originated with the judiciary, but to accomplish their purpose they must have legislative support. If I go to the Legislature I will admit that every one who has litigation ought to have it tried and tried right. Sometimes the tax payer justly wonders why the amount in litigation. In important trials it often costs the County several thousand dollars to find out that certain jurors have conscientious scruples against capital punishment. Surely some method could be devised to get this information at a nominal cost. The selection of a jury under the present system is the greatest gamble outside of the pure games of chance.

I want to help the judiciary remedy this wrong.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM McELWEE, JR.

semble with one-piece frock having white georgette collar and long coat trimmed with fox fur. It is one of those delightful white polka-dotted materials.

Patou uses navy taffeta for a most charming moderate frock with bodice bloused in front forming a loose bolero at the back. There is a rose-satin gilet and the collar and cuffs are of fine handkerchief linen.

More than moderate is a dark green alpaca model with collar and cuffs of the same material in ivory. There is no other trimming.

BUSINESS MEN START DRIVE ON LIQUOR LAWS

(International News Service)

DENVER, Col., May 2.—The Freeman of America, an organization with avowed purpose of seeking repeal of liquor prohibition laws, both state and national, has been incorporated here. Purpose of the organization as set forth in papers of incorporation are:

"To fully acquaint our fellow citizens with the true nature of the grave menace that threatens our free institutions.

"To labor assiduously for the repeal of all prohibition and other summary laws, be they state or national, which minimize the least right granted to the humblest citizen, and especially those enumerated in the Bill of Rights, which latter we pledge ourselves to uphold.

"To set forth a plan, as a substitute for the present prohibition crime, whereby real temperance would be achieved through the dispensation of pure liquors, under legal supervision, and wherefrom public revenues would be obtained and used for reducing the tax burden, liquidating the public debt, and constructing public works."

The incorporators are Dr. J. N. Vroom, widely known Denver physician, Peter F. Bessie, marble quarry owner, Joshua Grozier, wealthy businessman, and Bernard F. Landers, retired business man.

A membership campaign and a campaign for the repeal of the state prohibition law is to start soon.

Kills Woman In Youngstown, O.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 2.—Following a fight at their residence at 135 N. Hine, Thursday, James Wilson, 43, shot and killed Bessie Taylor, 28.

Wilson was drunk, police said. He was charged with murder.

In the quarrel, the woman struck him on the head with an ax, police were told. Wilson then fired a shotgun into her head.

Wilson said he couldn't remember what happened.

"I don't know why I did it," he declared. "I didn't mean to kill her."

A Scotch Joke On A "Scotchman"

(International News Service)

DALLAS, Texas, May 2.—There is one resident of Dallas who does not appreciate a Scotch joke.

He recently rushed into the office of the federal census supervisor here and declared he wanted census information obtained from his wife changed.

"Why?" asked the supervisor. "Well, ever since we were married she has upbraided me for being a tightwad. It has been money—money—money."

"So when the enumerator asked her where my parents were born and my birthplace was, she told them Scotland. I was born in Dallas and I'm not Scotch."

NEWLY BORN KITTENS TIE UP MESSAGE TUBES

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2.—She's just old tabby cat over at the new $4,000,000 Shell Oil Company building who had a new family.

But was there ever prince or princess of the feline realm whose well being was of more concern?

For this tabby's descendants, Construction Superintendent H. H. Anderson announced, have put out of commission the buildings costly pneumatic tube system by being born in an inaccessible bend, and staying there.

The cause of the system's failure to operate was revealed when Mrs. Tabby stepped out of the tube with a new furry offspring between her teeth.

Anderson was faced with this dilemma. He could tear out the tubing home of the kittens, but the cost would be prohibitive, he might try to blow them out, but if one should be killed, the tubing would have to come out.

So, now the countryside is being scoured for cat-nip or other feline caviar to either coax the kittens out of the tube or to give to their tabby mama to take to them that they may grow fast and strong and walk out soon themselves.

What A Lovely Roast-- Where Did You Buy It

That was the question asked of one of our patrons only last week when she was host to a party of friends and relatives at an evening dinner.

That question wasn't asked for the first time only last week. Many of our new patrons upon making their first purchase here frankly admit that they likewise were prompted to make a similar inquiry before they knew it was possible to procure such fine meat in this city.

It means just this—we are serving satisfied patrons who, unsolicited, are endorsing the meats we carry in our market—patrons who know "better meats" and who are assured of choice cuts when they buy here—assured of meats that are tasty and, above all, assured of prices that are right.

WILL CURB FIELD OF MENTAL UNFIT

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Predicting a time when mental defectives will be eliminated from holding such responsible jobs as taxi cab drivers, flagmen on railroads and other situations where initiative, quick decisions and self control are needed, Dr. William C. Sandy, director of the bureau of mental health, State Department of Welfare, today cited the increase in the number of mental health examinations throughout the State which last month reached an average of eighteen a day.

Dr. Sandy's report to Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley, State Secretary of Welfare said that as time goes on, the extent of privilege and responsibility permitted mental defectives is likely to become less and less, or at least more definitely limited. With the extension of psychological and psychiatric examination of school children and others, the mentally deficient will be known and placed more and more under supervision.

"As a result of modern tendencies," the report continued, "an increasing number of mental defectives make good in a community. In fact hundreds of subnormal individuals with good habits and some training who have found a niche in life will never be recognized as mental defectives."

The report indicates that it is fully recognized that mental defectives marry and have children and take their places as property holders, vote and hold places of some responsibility in a community and very nearly approximate in varying degrees the normal man.

Dr. Sandy emphasized the fact that mental deficiency should not merely be regarded and an excuse for delinquency on the ground of irresponsibility as is often the case, but as a definite reason for supervision. In other words, he said a feeble minded person charged with a criminal offense or delinquency no matter how trivial, requires supervision either by commitment to an institution or at least the attention of a live community social service agency.

Policemen Want Plane For Sky Duty

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, May 2.—Two policemen here went on record as favoring an airplane for sky patrols after a "flivver" had proven inadequate in an attempt to regulate air traffic.

The policemen, Charles Janicek and James Ketcham, received complaints from householders on their beat that several airplanes were flying low over the neighborhood, constituting a nuisance and possible menace.

Seated in their "flivver," the officers sought to attract the attention of the offending flyers by blowing the horn of the car and waving their arms. Nothing happened. Then they obtained a long sheet, of wrapping paper from a butcher shop, painted "Come Down" on it in large letters, and held it across an airway between two flat buildings.

"We held it there for several hours," Janicek said later, "but we didn't catch a single plane."

WARNS WOMEN TO STOP BUYING GOODS ON CREDIT

(International News Service)
STEPHENSVILLE, Texas, May 2.—Eliminate buying of food and clothing on credit. Eliminate both the necessary and luxurious credit buying. It will be an important means of contributing to the general improvement of economic conditions.

Statements to this effect were made by Mrs. R. P. Lindsay, president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in her official message to the twenty-ninth annual convention of the first district federation here.

"The women of Texas have a much greater power in solving economic problems than they perhaps realize," Mrs. Lindsay declared. "Farm relief and the various other economic problems that are commanding state and national attention are really intimately concerned with the home, and with each and every one of us."

"Credit buying of the necessities and luxuries of our daily existence should be eliminated as the first step. I do not mean that credit should not be used. There is a credit buying that is in the nature of an investment, the purchasing of various commodities that may be luxuries or necessities, according to our demands and taste for which the credit system is highly desirable."

Claims Henry Ford Once Shod His Horse

(International News Service)
TERRELL, Texas, May 2.—"That's nothing," retorted Kirby Orr, Terrell business man, when he overheard a bank president boast that his bank had two directors who were also directors in the world's largest bank, the Chase National bank of New York.

"Henry Ford once shod a horse for me, when he was a blacksmith in Detroit, and I once loaned E. H. Green a $10 bill after the boys had cleaned him in a local contest of some sort," said Orr.

He explained that when he was a track devotee, in 1901, he took El Capitan, a race horse of wide renown, to Detroit. It rained the day before the race, and the track was softened so much that his horse had to have a new set of shoes.

Henry Ford was the man who personally shod his horse. He was at that time operating a blacksmith shop in Detroit, according to Orr.

1-2-3, Blacksmith Learns He Is Father

(International News Service)
TOWNSEND, Tenn., May 2.—It's bad enough to know that you're the father of triplets without learning of the birth of each child individually.

Manning M. Stinnett, blacksmith, heard someone outside his shop yell to him "It's a girl!" and immediately began walking home.

While on the way Stinnett was confronted with another announcer who shrieked "It's two girls!" Stinnett began running home.

Nearing his residence Stinnett was approached by a third "Paul Revere" who barked "It's two girls and a boy!" Stinnett began racing onward. After all, he might be in time to greet the fourth-born himself. But he had to be satisfied with three four pound babes.

In view of recent disclosures more than one congressman is probably amending the refrain to read: How dry am I?—The Boston Transcript.

KILLS SELF BY HITTING SHELL

PARIS, May 2.—Rosalia Pasko, 2 young girl of Leon, in the war torn district of Alsace, chose one of the most unique methods of committing suicide ever recorded when she found an unexploded shell in the woods on the outskirts of the town. She deliberately struck detonating cap with a hammer, blowing herself to bits.

Fragments of her body and the hammer were found in a shell hole and authorities are certain that the explosion was not accidental, as the girl had been despondent for some time.

Every month several persons are killed in France from the explosion of old shells. Tuesday in Mulhouse two children were killed and a third critically injured when a shell with which they were playing exploded.

Prison Horrors Seen As Inevitable Under System That Makes Criminals Twice As Fast As It Does Prisons

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 2.—"Prison horrors are inevitable," said Congresswoman Florence P. Kahn, of California, "under a system which manufactures criminals considerably more than twice as fast as prisons can be built to put them in."

"Ohio's wholesale tragedy at Columbus seems like the limit of the grotesquely terrible—but who knows? After the last year's series of uprisings and bloodshed, in state and federal penitentiaries alike, the country over, one must be an optimist to feel sure that nothing can outdo what already has happened."

Mrs. Kahn laid down the newspaper in which she had been reading of the warnings given months ago by President E. E. Dunning of the Prisoners' Relief Society of the national capital to Gov. Myers Y. Cooper of Ohio, that conditions in the Columbus penitentiary already, at that time, were the worst in America, and of the governor's reply that the Buckeye state would look after its own penitentiary without any advice from outsiders.

"Possibly Ohio was worst," agreed the congresswoman, "but there cannot have been a great deal to choose between that and most other prisons."

"With Attorney General Mitchell only recently appealing to congress not to pass laws making still more crimes until additional penitentiaries are ready to hold new criminals, the federal government's dilemma speaks for itself. The accommodations of most, if not all, of our state penitentiaries, evidently are just as badly overstrained."

"Naturally," continued the California woman legislator, "existence must be well-nigh intolerable in a prison crowded far above 100 per cent beyond its capacity."

"And the discipline?—plus the beastly crowding?"

"Well, without being told anything about the Columbus penitentiary (for example) this much is obvious:

"The prisoners there were forced to live under the same management which, put to the test of an emergency, allowed more than 300 of them to burn to death in their cells—whether due to their guardians' inefficiency or to their downright inhumanity in balking at the danger involved in releasing their wards."

"On either supposition, it was hardly a control which one can regard as having been, probably, very close to the ideal—even for a prison."

Is there any remedy?—at least for the overcrowding evil?

"Oh," replied Mrs. Kahn, "more paroles might help somewhat—as to the federal penitentiaries."

"For every 10 federal prisoners eligible for parole, who apply for it, his good behavior. There is no reason for holding the other nine except that they lack the necessary influence to get favorable action on their applications.

"It is too much a matter of politics."

"The convict whose congresswoman makes a strong appeal for him wins freedom at the earliest legal moment. Another convict, just as much entitled to it, stays behind the bars for lack of someone to plead his cause."

"But our real trouble," said the congresswoman, "arises from laws which make felonies out of what are, at worst, only misdemeanors."

"About half our convicts in no true sense are criminals."

"If our so-called criminals, who are not criminals, never were sent to our penitentiaries, there would be ample room for the genuine ones."

$1000 Cash Bail Is Declared Forfeited

FRANKLIN, Pa., May 2.—One thousand dollars cash bail posted by Jock K. Turney of West Homestead was forfeited to Judge Parker's court when Turney failed to appear for trial. He was arrested two weeks ago with 175 quarts of whisky and other liquors in his car, enroute from Buffalo to Pittsburgh.

The arrest was made at Wyattville, eight miles from here, by state motor police stopping cars for brake examination.

Portersville Woman Sues Contractor

BUTLER, Pa., May 2.—H. W. Baldwin of Willoughby, O., a contractor, was sued today for $2,000 by Emeline Scheidmantle of Portersville, who asks payment for a barn which was burned the night of December 12. Baldwin, a contractor on a section of the Perry highway, used the barn for storage purposes, and the plaintiff charges that the fire was started as gasoline was being poured from one container to another, when it was ignited by sparks from a cigar.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN MORTALITY RATE OF MOTHERS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 2.—The Children's Welfare association is concerned over the fact that there has been no improvement in the mortality of women in childbirth since 1912 and has launched a $100,000 campaign to more adequately care for the health of mothers and babies.

The rate of mortality among mothers has become alarming, declared Thomas S. McLane in opening the drive. "No fewer women die in giving birth to their babies today than did in 1912," he said. The average is one out of every 200. Half of these deaths special studies have shown are totally unnecessary. They could be eliminated by proper maternity care.

Fifty-two thousand mothers and children were cared for by the association through its central clearing house last year. Twenty thousand babies were placed in baby health stations, about 4,000 in convalescent homes and temporary shelters and thousands more in hospitals, day nurseries and boarding homes.

Through the association, natural milk is taken from those who have an overabundant supply and given to those infants whose mothers have an inadequate supply. Hundreds of quarts are given to sick and premature babies. The association collected 3,515 quarts of milk in this way last year and either sold it at low prices or gave it away. More than 500 babies who would have otherwise died were saved in this way. One mother alone earned $1,000 by selling her milk last year, thus showing that this practice has become a business with some women.

How does the speed of a carrier pigeon compare with that of the airplane?

When weather conditions are favorable, pigeons fly at an average speed of about a mile a minute. Under good conditions a pigeon makes a flight of five to six hundred miles from daylight to dark. Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh crossed the United States, an estimated air-line distance of 2,497 miles in 14 hours 22 minutes and 59 seconds a few days ago.

Is there such a wind known as the harmattan?

Yes. This is a dry wind off the west coast of Africa, blowing from the interior during December, January and February. It serves to mitigate climatic fever and dysentery, but parches the skin and withers vegetation.

How much is the White House valued at?

The White House and grounds are valued at more than $22,000,000 by the tax assessors.

Are agricultural conditions in the United States improving?

"Agricultural conditions in the United States continue gradually to improve," asserts Secretary Arthur M. Hyde, of the department of agriculture, in his last report to the president. "Farm incomes in the crop season 1928-1929 averaged higher than those of any season since 1920-21, except 1925-26. The movement of population from the coast to the town declined and the rate of depreciation in farm land values declined also. The aggregate gross income from agriculture, production in the United States for the crop season 1928-29 is estimated to have been $12,327,000,000. This was about $225,000,000 more than the aggregate gross income of the preceding year."

Will you explain the difference in the terms used for flags in the military service of the United States?

1. A color is a flag carried by unmounted units. 2. A standard, a flag carried by mounted or motorized units. 3. An ensign is a flag flown on ships and small boats.

Is the Bible still one of the most widely distributed books?

During 1928 there were issued by the American Bible society 11,632,494 volumes of Scriptures, 6,484,626 in foreign fields and 4,547,868 in the United States. The society's totals of issues during its 113 years of activity have been 105,096,251 volumes of Bibles, Testaments and portions.

(NOTE: The following pamphlets may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, to Central Press, Washington Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C.: "Who's Who in Hollywood" and Charles P. Stewart's treatise on "Our Government.")

Seven Daughters, Asks State Prize

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Probably confusing Mussolini methods for the repopulation of Italy, a woman recently wrote to the children's bureau, State Department of Welfare, saying that she was a candidate for a prize which she had seen offered through the press for any mother having seven daughters in succession. The mother lists the seven daughters and includes mention of two sons and another daughter.

Miss Margaret Steel Moss, acting director of the bureau of children, replied to the mother that it sounded as though she had "under a prize family." Unfortunately, however, I know of no offer having been made such as you describe.

Bo Broadway by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press

NEW YORK, May 2.—Ed Dilly, whose chant about the University of Penn-syl-van-ia first brought him fame, used to room with a chap in the vicinity of a glorious goulash garage. The goulash served there was absolutely the finest that has ever been conceived on this earth. Adequate rehearsal of its virtues would require an entire newspaper page.

It got to be quite the thing to drop into the Dilly bachelor quarters around dinner time. You'd be asked to remain and break bread and Ed or his friend would slip out the back way and return shortly with a steaming pot of goulash which guests were permitted to believe, was of home construction.

Their reputation as goulash architects became widespread. Questioned as to its mode of construction, both gentlemen exhibited marked reticence which, in time, was construed as evidence of genius.

Finally, in desperation, one of the young female visitors to the studio was married to Dilly's friend. She told the other girls she'd find out the secret of the goulash construction and would pass it along.

They say that when she learned of her husband's perfidy—for in a burst of honeymoon confidence he made a clean breast of his deception—that her love for him was all that saved the day.

AT IT AGAIN
The beauticians are now selling mascara that makes the brows and eyelashes blue. The funny part of it is they'll find lots of dumbbells who'll fall for it. It's like the dirty brown face powder they sold last year. Somebody must have got stuck with a shipload of it and persuaded the beauty coxners to make it "fashionable." And the girls went around looking like a lot of undusted bric-a-brac.

REVERSE ENGLISH

The text for one of the most famous Sunday funny pages, in color, is written by a gentleman who, years ago, used to indite lengthy and learned screeds advocating that all comic strips be eradicated, eliminated, squashed, squelched and rendered null and void!

Five out of every seven small stores in Harlem's black belt are speakeasies selling what passes for gin. The vice spot of the city is the district between 132nd and 138th streets and 5th and 7th avenues. It is called "Coke Village," and both whites and blacks do their "dreaming" there. There are 500 colored cafes known to the police of the Thirty-second precinct, and this station during last year has had the greatest number of crimes booked in its history.

It's a good place to stay away from—unless you know the ropes and then it's a good place to stay away from.

SCOOP

To Henry L. Webb, New York newspaper man, goes the palm for obtaining the most novel newspaper scoop in the modern manner.

Every editor in the city issued orders that Secretary Simpson, returning from the Naval Disarmament Conference at London aboard the Leviathan was to be interviewed the moment the ship reached quarantine.

Webb didn't wait. He caught the ship by radio, and asked for Mr. Simpson, who couldn't say he wasn't home. The result—a fine, exclusive and interesting newspaper story.

This may be the machine age, but an alert mind is still an asset.

The trails of Ken Maynard, western movie star, and the writer crossed in front of the Times Building.

"Hello, Ken," said he, "how's your horse?"

"Left him lookin' kinda doleful," Ken told us. "He's on one of them 18-day diets—two wisps of straw and a quart of grapefruit seeds a day."

SKIN DEEP
Among those joining the local army of unemployed are a number of men whose stock in trade is their exceedingly rough appearance. They were employed in the silent movies that have seen their day. It was found, when the talkies came in, that a great majority of men who photographed as perfect gangsters, crooks and bad men in general have sweet, gentle and even piping voices.

Big, rough men, it seems, vocal like a Swiss nightingale, and little fellows who don't weigh more than 100 pounds burst out into hairy-chested baritone.

Township Has Nearly 100 Per Cent Decrease Now Only 1 Resident

AUGUSTA, Me., May 2.—The population of "Township 5, Range 12," in Piscataquis county has dropped 99.3 per cent in the past 10 years. The present population is one.

The 1920 Federal census showed a population of 147.

The enumerator this year in reporting the big decline said that ten years ago there was a good sized lumbering operation under way and the 147 persons were all employed at the camp. Since then lumbering has been abandoned and the lone resident is the keeper.

Women Lawyers Organized In France

PARIS, May 2.—The International Federation of Women Magistrates and Lawyers has recently been organized in France, having as its principal aim to obtain the same openings in the legal profession as men have. The women who have started this believe that they should have the right to become judges and to preside over juvenile tribunals. They intend to support movements for arbitration and the building up of international law.

Pays Taxes But Gets No Service

Albert Rzeke Appears Before Solons And Asks For Relief

Albert Rzeke, 1812 Morris street, appeared before council which convened at the city building and charged that while he pays taxes on property he does not receive any benefit from the sanitary sewer or garbage collection systems.

He has had a cesspool built in his yard. Councilman Treser said there is a sand bank on one side of the street and it became a question if the owner could be assessed for a sewer line.

Councilman Burns presented a motion recommending that "the city take care of this situation."

All plantation workers in Hawaii are busily employed this season.

No Provision For Sewer Line, Claim

Bailey Buys 18 Lots On East Side And Appears Before Council

R. A. Bailey appeared before city council which met in the city hall today and as the result of a statement council ordered Frank Miller, city engineer, to inquire into sewerage conditions in Butler avenue, between Adams street and Winslow avenue also in Maryland avenue between Franklin and Butler avenues.

Bailey said that though the thoroughfares had been improved by paving years ago no provision had been made for sewerage.

Councilman Gensinger's motion, which passed, instructed the city engineer to make an investigation.

Russian Letters Show Communists Promote Unrest

SOVIETS INCITE NEW YORK RIOTS

(International News Service) NEW YORK, May 2.—Police Commissioner Whalen today made public a number of letters of Russian origin which are declared to contain directions for activities of communists in the United States.

The letters are written in Russian and are dated, principally, in Moscow. A code symbol is attached, but authorities said that when "read straight" they were directions to stir up trouble for the United States government by marshaling unemployed and disgruntled workers to cause "outbreaks."

Whalen made public photostatic copies of the letters and translations, with the following statement: "The attention of the police department was drawn to the activities of the communists through the number of unnecessary and violent strikes which the representatives of labor declared to be backed by the Russian Soviet government."

"Complaint was also made to the United States department of labor to its representative in New York, the commissioner of conciliation, Charles G. Wood."

Secret Agencies. "The United States labor department and the labor unions provided such strong circumstantial evidence in substantiation of their charges, that it was decided to put the matter in the hands of our bureau of criminal information, and after strenuous and painstaking investigation the labor representatives were found to be right—that the communists' international of Moscow was directly operating in the United States through certain agencies having headquarters in the city of New York, fomenting strikes and riots which the police had to contend with recently, not only in this city but also in various other sections of the country."

"The appended photostats, which constitute a part of the documents contained, tell their own story."

"It will be noted that these documents reach this country by courier from the Soviet embassies of Berlin or Paris."

ROSE AVENUE MOTHERS ARE OUT IN FORCE

Great Number Of Children Of Pre-School Age Are Examined This Morning

Rose Avenue school appeared to be the Mecca of all mothers of the district this morning, who happened to have children about ready to enter school.

The news of the excellent work being done under the auspices of the Health Committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs with the co-operation of the physicians, nurses and Parent-Teachers organizations of the city in the matter of ascertaining the physical conditions of children, who will enter school in the fall, had apparently inspired the mothers of this district and forty two of them appeared with their children.

There was plenty of help in the way of physicians and nurses to carry on the examination and some very satisfactory results were obtained.

Laymen's Council Is Meeting Today

A discussion period followed the speaker and at noon the ladies of the church served the World Service Dinner, at which C. G. Parr presided and Dr. George H. Haigh of Syracuse, N. Woman's Solo Flying Record Falls In France (International News Service) LE BOURGNET, France, May 2.—A plucky French girl, Lena Bernstein, broke the woman's solo endurance flying record by a wide margin today and continued aloft, fighting off fatigue, in an effort to wrest the world's record from male dominance.

Mlle. Bernstein, at 11:18 a. m. today had been flying for 28 hours. The former record was held by Mlle. Maryse Bastie, another French flyer, at 26 hours, 47 minutes. Continuing on, the new record holder had announced her intention to keep the plane in the air until at least 8 p. m. This feat would give her practically 37 hours solo flight. It was understood at the field that Mlle. Bernstein, if her plane continued functioning smoothly and if she could hold out against sleep, would continue on until she had passed the 38 hour mark to break the world's record.

Vern Speich holds the world's solo record at present with 38 hours, 48 seconds, made at Long Beach, California. Mlle. Bernstein took off from Le Bourget field at 7:18 a. m. Thursday.

Will Announce Winner Friday

Tree Naming Contest Has Created Much Interest; 65 Names Were Submitted

Friday, May 9, at the meeting of the executive board of the Lawrence County Garden club, a decision will be made as to the most appropriate name for the old cypress tree on the public square among the suggestions given by school children in the naming contest which ended Thursday.

Mrs. Walter Eckenrood, secretary of the Lawrence County Garden club, announced this morning that 65 answers were received, during the several months duration of the contest. Most of the names were submitted by New Castle school children, although school children in Volant, Wampum, Grove City and Los Angeles, California, sent in names for the tree. The contest was open to all school children of Lawrence county.

A tablet with the chosen name of the tree will be erected on the tree and the winner of the contest will receive five dollars.

Fence Smoulders; Five Trucks Called

Red Hot Ashes Dumped Against Fence Cause Small Fire This Morning

Five pieces of apparatus in addition to the fire chief's car were called out about 9:45 this morning when the fence in the rear of Nimaen's dry cleaning establishment on East street was found ablaze. It had started to smoulder from hot ashes which had been dumped against it. The blaze could easily have been extinguished by a bucket of water. Firemen extinguished the flame with a hand extinguisher.

At 10:20 last evening firemen were called to 115 West Washington street by an alarm from box 8. They found a hot plate in the restaurant operated by J. White smouldering. The burning rags caused some smoke, but no fire damage.

Frisco Police Force Wandering Youths To Write To Mothers

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2—A new duty assigned to San Francisco police is that of forcing wandering boys and girls to write to their mothers.

Detective Sergeant Marvin Dowell, head of the missing persons bureau, is assigned to handle the task. "We get about twenty-five requests daily to locate missing persons from all parts of the world," said Sergeant Dowell. "And the reason for the most of these requests is that boys and girls leave home seeking to make a name in the big city."

"They get to the big city, find the rough hard and the natural thing is that they don't write home."

"Of course no one gets much pleasure out of writing of their failures. The result is that some poor mother back in Iowa, or in the interior of California gets worried about their son or daughter. We get a letter asking help."

"They usually give us the last address of the missing person and from that we trace them down. We nearly always find them. Then all we have to do is to threaten to look them up if they don't write home."

"They usually agree to write." Sergeant Dowell pointed out that there were more missing boys reported in San Francisco than girls. This, he explained, is due to San Francisco being a port and hundreds of boys having a desire to go to sea.

"In the last week we have received requests from as far away as Germany and Italy to track down missing relatives," Dowell said.

"A woman in Germany wanted to locate her daughter, from whom she had not heard for twenty years. We went to the last address. No one remembered the name of the woman but we got a clue. Some one told of a woman who formerly resided there with a blonde haired baby."

"The missing woman in the case had blonde hair."

"The baby, our informant recalled, had been in a hospital. We inquired at the hospital and looked up a name similar to the one given us by the woman in Germany."

"Through the name in the hospital we found the missing woman. She was living under an entirely different name than the one furnished by her mother in Germany."

"Of course, we cautioned her about writing home."

"We even get requests to locate people who have not been heard from since the gold rush, and others send in letters asking about people born as far back as 1814."

"We always try to look them up no matter how ridiculous they seem." Sergeant Dowell admitted about half of his department's time was taken up by keeping track of boys and girls reported missing on their way home from school.

"These youngsters usually show up in an hour or so with a story that would put a movie thriller to shame," the sergeant laughed.

Blame Mayor's Defeat On Dance Marathon

(International News Service)
CALEXICO, Cal., May 2—A dance marathon which lasted five weeks is blamed for the defeat of Mayor A. J. Mercier at the city election.

Mercier gave permission for the dance.

For five years complaints were registered against a continuous program broadcast from the dance hall, in many cases interfering with reception from other stations.

Mercier ran a poor third in the election, despite the fact that he has been a tireless worker for Calexico, quite often making "booster" trips for the town at his own expense.

As we interpret his testimony before the house committee, Mr. du Pont doesn't believe the prohibition amendment is worth the powder to blow it up.—The Ann Arbor Daily News.

STATE BIRTH RATE CONTINUES DECLINE

HARRISBURG, May 2—The bureau of vital statistics today announced a preliminary birth rate of 191 for Pennsylvania in 1929. There were 189,247 live births and 7,814 still births registered in the State last year, but these totals may be somewhat increased by delayed reports. However, nearly 13,000 additional births are necessary to raise the rate to that of 1928. In actual numbers there was a decrease in 1929 of over 11,000 births from the figures of the preceding year. In spite of an increase of over 2,000,000 in population there were fewer births recorded in the Commonwealth in 1929 than 20 years ago.

A principal cause for this decline is believed to be the decrease in the number of marriages in 1929. In that year there were 67,632 marriages performed, a reduction of approximately 3,000 from the total of both 1927 and 1928. Few marriages are taking place and these marriages are occurring later in life than a generation ago. Consequently, the number of children born to parents, is fewer than the number which composed the families of their parents and grandparents.

A further explanation officials said, may be found in the fact that there are fewer foreign born women of child-bearing age in the State than in the years before immigration was restricted. The birth rate among the foreign born has always been higher than among the native born women.

Of the larger cities in the State, the following registered a considerable reduction in their natality record for 1929: Bethlehem, Easton, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Williamsport.

FAMILY LIFE TO BE STUDIED AT CONFERENCE

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 2.—The strength of family life in America today, the effect of long-time unemployment on the stability of the family, the best method of rehabilitating a family in which one of the parents is a chronic alcoholic, the extent to which a widow or deserted wife is able to assume the full responsibility for her family, and the methods of measuring the results of family welfare work, are the subjects to be discussed at a four-week conference beginning May 5 called by the Family Welfare Association of America.

The conference, to be known as the Family Social Institute, for 1930, will be held at the Russell Sage Foundation Building in New York City and attendance will be limited to representatives of the family welfare societies included in the national organization's membership. The institute will be under the direction of Miss Betsey Libbey of the Family Society of Philadelphia.

The organizations which will participate in the conference are those carrying on family welfare work in Brooklyn; Lansing, Michigan; Indianapolis, Indiana; Cleveland; Tulsa, Oklahoma; Richmond, Virginia; Newark; Wilmington, Delaware; Columbia, S. C.; Kansas City, Missouri; Charleston, S. C.; Springfield, Illinois; Cincinnati, Ohio; Madison, Wisconsin; Springfield, Mass.; New Orleans, Louisiana; Johnstown, Pennsylvania; Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; St. Paul, Minnesota; Philadelphia; St. Louis, Missouri; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Minneapolis, Minnesota; Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Some of the family welfare agency representatives coming to the conference have been asked to bring a record of the more or less successful assumption of the full responsibility for a family by a widow or deserted wife or a mother in a family where the father has been permanently incapacitated by accident or illness. Other delegates have been asked to bring a complete history of an effort to treat adequately the difficulties of the family of an alcoholic.

The institute will also consider how the individual family welfare agency may best interpret modern social work to its community.

Detectives Search For Missing Girl

Private detectives are combing the country for Muriel Fox, 17-year-old daughter of Charles Donald Fox, publisher and motion picture director. The girl and her father have not been seen since she met him in the office of a friend in New York almost a week ago. Fox and his wife have been separated for three years, with Mrs. Fox having custody of the girl.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon. The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

I will never leave thee nor forsake thee; I will go with thee all the way.

When out in the wilderness alone, when bereft of friends and of fortune, when compassed with grief and with gloom, merciful Father, no words could be as comforting. Thy providential care towers above the forbidding horizons of all human need. We thank Thee for Thy promises. Inspire us with their loftiest heights of spiritual exaltation, with the widest sweep of their conquering might, and with their largest breadth of their catholicity. Bless our country with all its leaders. Preserve them from perplexing doubt and perilous drift. Let righteous assertion, patriotic zeal, and good will ring cheerily from border to border and from coast to coast. In the name of the world's Savior. Amen.

Will Continue To Fight Diphtheria

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Dr. J. Bruce McCreary, deputy secretary of health and chief of the bureau of child health, said today that a further offensive against diphtheria in Pennsylvania is now under way.

"While the presence of diphtheria in Pennsylvania has been most materially and satisfactorily diminished within the past few years it is necessary to continue the immunization process for the purpose of protecting new classes of children to whom this preventive measure has not as yet been administered," Dr. McCreary said.

"Numerous counties, including Dauphin, Montour and Northumberland are starting toxin-antitoxin campaigns at this time with many other counties in the state following in line. It is expected that from now until the opening of school next fall approximately a quarter of a million additional children will have been immunized against diphtheria in addition to the present millions who have received this preventive treatment in the past. There is every reason to believe that from a public health standpoint this malady will in a few years be eliminated. However, to reach this goal successfully it becomes absolutely essential that all parents with small children realize the value of this procedure and co-operate with the State county and city health authorities in their continued efforts."

Scout First Aid Meet Will Draw Crowd Tonight

Fifteen Different Teams To Compete For Trophy Cup; Public Invited

AUDITORIUM TO BE SCENE OF CONTEST

First aid teams of 15 or more Boy Scout troops of the New Castle district will assemble at Carnegie auditorium promptly at 7:30 o'clock tonight to compete for the handsome R. J. Tully silver trophy under the watchful eyes of competent and impartial judges.

The event marks the annual first aid meet for Scout troops of the Lawrence county Boy Scout council. Scout leaders declared this morning that a large attendance of interested citizens is anticipated, as the meet will be open to the public free of charge. Parents of Scouts are urged to attend, as well as those having no direct interest in local Scout activities.

Scoutmaster William Haley, leader of Elks troop No. 5, is general chairman for this evening, with a staff of other troop leaders assisting him. Elaborate arrangements have been made and it is hoped that tonight's competition will surpass other previous meets, both as to the quality of competition and outside interest manifested.

It had been planned to bring a special corps of Bell Telephone Company first aid men from Pittsburgh to judge the events, but word received today said none could find it possible to come. Local men, experts in first aid work, have gladly volunteered to substitute for them. Their names were not announced.

The Tully award will be awarded to the winner to hold against competition, and it is understood a second place award will also be made. Both will be presented at a court of honor session some time later.

Each team participating tonight will be composed of five Scouts and another who will fill the roll of patient in the exhibition.

Proposal Given On Park Project

Day Realty company presented today to council a definite proposition relative to 18 lots south of Jameson Memorial hospital which it is proposed to convert into a park, and which would serve as a pleasant sight for convalescents and also prevent erection of buildings close to the hospital. Council sent the communication to committee for further consideration.

The company offered to sell the lots to the city for $10,000 subject to the liens the city has filed for improvements on surrounding streets, excepting in a few cases where certain lots have been disposed of. The lots are bounded by Leasure and Winter avenues, Locust street and the North Hill plaza lots.

CLOCKMAKING IN AMERICA TODAY IS A FINE ART

Left, above, marble and wrought iron clock; below, clock of gilded bronze; right, modernistic clock. Clockmaking today is one of the fine arts. In America the skill of clockmakers and designers equals, and in many respects surpasses, that of the best clockmaking periods of the past. A few generations ago clocks were considered luxuries, but now a clock enters into the decorative scheme of the house. There are clocks to match the period of every decorative style, ancient or modern. Above are pictured, left, above, a marble and wrought iron clock; below a clock of gilded bronze; right, a clock in modernistic design.

Ellwood Baseball Club Is Organized

Opening Game Of Season Is Scheduled For Saturday Afternoon At Beaver Falls

ELLWOOD CITY, May 2.—With the necessary support secured, the Ellwood City baseball club is all set for their opening contest when they travel to Beaver Falls Saturday afternoon. For some time it was doubted as to whether Ellwood would enter the Beaver county loop, but it was assured when the local merchants came to the rescue and agreed to give their support.

At a recent meeting, John Ruskovic was elected manager of the club and Rev. H. D. Maxwell secretary and treasurer, while Ray Labate will act as business manager. Grundy Volpe is to captain the Tubers. The Ellwood club is very fortunate in acquiring Ruskovic as pilot, and he will undoubtedly handle the post in a veteran fashion as he has had plenty of experience.

Through the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce in general and the personal efforts of T. W. Bruce, secretary, and Paul Cartwright, head of the merchants division, prospects look very bright for furnishing the necessary equipment. A new plan has been adopted whereby each player will be outfitted by a local merchant. From all indications the Tubers have a fine roster of men who will form the Ellwood nine. Besides having Boyle back on the job, three more pitchers have been acquired. They are Lauderback of New Brighton, Dominick Mundo of Wampum and Engel of Uniontown. The first name is a southpaw. Fred Sanders will not be found at the hot corner due to an injury but will probably will in shape in a week's time. His place will be taken by Jimmy Hamilton of New Brighton. Dick Friedhoff will play shortstop. Volpe at second base, while first base is assigned to Irwin of New Brighton. In the outfield will be found two veterans, Mike Sanders and Frank Fitzgerald. Cowie, another recruit from New Brighton, Harold Marshall and Joe Latiano will divide the work at backstop position. Final preparations have been completed and the local nine seems to be in good shape for the opening tilt in Beaver Falls tomorrow.

DRAPERIES ADD DIGNITY TO NEW EVENING GOWNS

By ALICE LANGHEIL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, May 2.—Draperies bring dignity to this season's evening dress, so carefully introduced that there is no suggestion of excessive material. The old slim look is still there, but in a new guise.

This means a "high style" rather than a popular vogue. Jean Potain shows it in a black chiffon gown with draped bodice and fitted hips.

The skirt is shaped and dips at the side and a long draped panel falls from the waistline at the back to form a train.

The new note of dignity in evening dress finds expression in a lovely black velvet with hipline sloping downwards into a long double train, while a bow and long and give a graceful line in front. The fabric is so draped that there is no angularity in the slim effect.

A slight drapery on the bodice of a Massey Rouff gown is held at the waistline by large flowers made of the same emerald green tulle as the frock itself and the skirt, mounted at low hipline, spreads graciously to a voluminous and even hem. The draped bodice is a new tendency and the extremely ample hemline is a feature of some of the spring collections.

A charmingly simple afternoon dress comes in beige crepe satin slightly draped in front and drawn tightly into a large bow at the back.

Lauds Slash In Airplane Travel Rates

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, May 2—The general reduction in passenger rates made soon after the first of the year by the established air lines in all parts of the country is emphasized as the most significant development in aviation in the past year in an anniversary report made public by Gen. John P. O'Ryan, president of Colonial Air Transport.

In this report, compiled for the first anniversary of Colonial's New York-Boston passenger service, Gen. O'Ryan takes occasion to survey the recent progress of aviation generally and to enumerate some of the achievements of the Colonial line.

"There have been many developments," Gen. O'Ryan said, "which may be of more importance to the technical side of aviation, but the radical and general reduction in rates exceeds them all in public importance. It demonstrates that we are bringing the air transport more quickly than we had anticipated, within reach of the average business and professional traveler." For such men and women it is becoming a regular and permanent transportation agency.

The Colonial New York-Boston service, according to the report, was inaugurated April 15, 1929, as the first exclusive air passenger line in the eastern part of the United States. During the first eleven and a half months of operation 10,607 passengers were carried. This figure was increased during the first week of April by an all time record of 453 passengers for the six day period.

"Since the reduction of our fare from $34.55 to $17.43," Gen. O'Ryan says in the report, "we have shown a remarkable increase, often carrying in one week as many passengers as we did during an entire month prior to the reduction. We are now operating three round trips daily instead of the original two round trips, and we use one or more extra sections almost daily."

"Contrary to the general belief that airplanes are used by the wealthy class only, we have found that most of our passengers are average business and professional people who have realized that the time saving element makes it profitable for them to pay a little more in order to go quickly from place to place."

General O'Ryan prophesied that passenger traffic will continue to grow by leaps and bounds because of the American business man's increasing appreciation of time saving possibilities, and because of the continually diminishing danger of accidents.

Among the Colonial line's achievements for the year, according to the report, is the organization of the first air messenger service in the country. Through cooperation with the Western Union company packages are called for in either city by messenger, flown to their destination and delivered within three hours.

The company has completed arrangements with the Western Union company to enable prospective passengers to make reservations through any local Western Union office.

In addition, Gen. O'Ryan points out that the carrying of mail on the noon passenger plane out of Boston makes it possible for special delivery letters posted in that city to be delivered the same afternoon in New York, Washington, Richmond and other southern cities.

First 50 Years Are Hardest

LONDON, May 2—George Bernard Shaw, a writer of considerable promise and for whom a great future is predicted, has finally managed to find a publisher for his novel after 50 years of waiting.

It was 50 years ago that Shaw wrote "Immaturity". He was 24 at the time. Every publisher in London rejected the work. One was George Meredith, who at that time was a reader for the publishing firm of Chapman & Hall. From then until now the manuscript lay about the Shavian chambers. Dust collected on it. Mice nibbled at it. Since then Shaw has written a few other things, such as some score of successful and world-famous plays, dozens of essays, a number of novels which were not rejected. This year "Immaturity" will see the light of day. It will be published in a collected edition of his works.

Proving once more that the first 50 years are the hardest.

All that is necessary to discourage divorce is an apartment big enough to hold two cases of self-pity and swell-head.

Steel Industry Employs Most Men

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 2—Iron and steel industries and allied groups with 60,491 wage earners on their payrolls employ 23 per cent of the manufacturing labor in the states. It was revealed in a survey of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

The 1623 groups according to the 1927 census manufacturers' report paid their employees $92,176,000 in wages and the value of their products was $405,532,000 compared with $398,946,000 in 1925.

The total of 10,068 manufacturing establishments of California employ 262,816 wage earners, according to the survey.

Iron and steel imports in 1929 totaled 224,891,000 pounds valued at $4,356,418 as compared with importation of 326,608,000 pounds worth $5,715,083 in 1928.

Value of iron and steel imports to the San Francisco customs district last year totaled $1,459,081 or 23.5 per cent less than the previous year.

Decrease of intercoastal shipments of iron and steel products at the San Francisco customs district in the calendar year 1928 totaled 523,063 tons, while in the fiscal year July 1, 1928 to June 30, 1929, the intercoastal tonnage into the Los Angeles customs district aggregated 996,124 tons.

Would Puncture Cars' Tires At Crossings

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2—As compared with human life, a motorist thinks more of his tires and tubes, according to a letter received today by the railroad commission from the Yuba county chamber of commerce at Marysville.

The chamber, through its secretary, W. S. O'Brien, asked Joseph Hunter, chief transportation engineer, for the commission, to think seriously of installing a steel bar with 2-inch spikes across all highways at grade crossings in such a manner that the spikes will swing up as trains approach because "motorists won't stop to save lives, but they will to save tires and tubes."

Hunter in a reply said the strain on tires would be too great from spike bars out of order and permanently turned up.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

In some cities of country May 1st was the day for uprisings, fervid speeches and broken heads. New Castle was particularly free from all that sort of thing and the only up-rising here was the revolt against uncleanliness and slovenly habits. The young revolutionists were the students of St. Philip and James School on Chartes street and the ocre of uncleanliness must have shuddered in his den as those little tads sang their health songs and recited their health creeds.

Every May Day is set apart by these students for their health program and to them the rules of hygiene are not merely phrases to be learned, they are orders to be followed. Clean teeth, clean hands, clean bodies and clean minds, plenty of rest and fresh air, plenty of the proper kinds of food, these are the guide posts to health and they follow them.

The kind of fight these young soldiers put up is the kind that pay large returns in better health, better living conditions, better bodies and minds.

The mushball season is on in full bloom. On every available lot in the city the boys are out and customers don't get the idea that it is a soft game. That ball is a big one, but the bat is small and there aren't many of the lads knocking it a mile.

Saw part of a game on the steel mill grounds last night and it was worth the trip just to see Tully Calazza miss them back of the bat. Tully can miss a ball the most gracefully of anybody I ever saw. In his case it becomes almost an art.

In order to be a good mushball player you have to have hands that can hold the ball properly. A mushball is about the size of a duck pin, ball, only soft.

Tony Richards has an interesting old paper which was found between the walls of an old blower office which has been torn down at the steel mill. It is a copy of a Pittsburgh paper, dated in November 1842 and the state of preservation it is in, indicates how weatherproof those old timers put up buildings.

Retired Seaman Has Ship's Cabin In Home

(International News Service) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 2.—A captain never grows too old his quarters to find.

So it is with Capt. John Leale, 80, hale and hearty, now retired after piloting boats nearly 40 years in San Francisco bay and tributaries.

Gracing the garden of Capt. Leale's home is a ship's cabin 11 by 20 feet with a bathroom annex. The building is heavily timbered in approved marine architectural style.

The skylight was taken from the Pacific Mail Company's "City of Pekin," as were the eight port lights and cabin window.

The bunk in the "ship's cabin" was the captain's bunk on the U. S. S. Bennington on which occurred an explosion that took scores of lives in San Diego harbor some years ago.

The "cabin" is as complete and comfortable as the cabin on any ship afloat.

Capt. Leale entered the service of the Southern Pacific company May 1, 1877, as captain of the ferry "Newark." He retired in 1914 and his name was placed on the company's roll of honor.

PENNSYLVANIA OIL FIELDS NEAR RECORD OUTPUT

(International News Service) NEW YORK, May 2.—Production in the Pennsylvania crude fields is close to the highest figures in the history of this historic section, where oil was first drilled in 1859.

According to figures compiled and announced by the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association from data furnished by Pennsylvania and West Virginia and by three major gathering companies for central and eastern Ohio, 23,391,618 barrels of crude oil were produced in this territory during 1929.

These figures represent an increase of 27.4 per cent in the last five years and an increase of 10.8 per cent over 1928 production. There has been an average yearly increase in the five year period of 6.4 per cent.

The average daily production of 64,036 barrels for 1929, an increase of 6,385 barrels over the daily output for 1928, approaches the peak period of production in the history of the Pennsylvania field, which was about 83,000 barrels daily in 1880 and 1881.

January and February of 1930 came still closer to record figures with daily average productions of 71,000 and 76,000 barrels, respectively. Until a few years ago this oldest oil field was generally considered to be practically played out, but water flooding and other scientific repressuring methods are making it possible to recover vast quantities of oil that could not be brought to the surface by ordinary pumping.

Producers in the Pennsylvania field predict that if the present rate of increased production continues, the daily output within two years will exceed the highest production in the history of the field, providing the market for oil does not go so low due to over-production that developments cannot be carried on profitably.

Will Wage War On Insect Pests

Campaign Against Japanese
Beetle And Corn Borer Planned In State

Road Patrols Will Be Established At Vantage Points
About June 15

HARRISBURG, May 2.—Preliminary plans for the summer campaign against the Japanese beetle, the European corn borer, and other devastating insects found in the commonwealth today were announced by R. H. Bell, director, bureau of plant industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

While the Japanese beetle quarantine area was extended this spring to include all or portions of 15 more counties, than were affected a year ago, a greater part of this new area has been designated as the "lightly infested area" in which restrictions are placed on the movement of nursery and ornamental plants, sand (except for construction purposes), soil, earth, compost and manure but not on the movement of farm products.

In the generally infested area restrictions will be continued practically the same as in the past with the one additional rule that nursery and ornamental stock, farm products, sand, soil, earth, peat, compost and manure cannot be moved to or through the lightly infested area without certification.

To Patrol Roads.

According to the present plans, the road patrols will begin work about June 15 and will be stationed at the edge of the generally infested area. In most cases, these stations will be at approximately the same points as a year ago.

Soil treatment will probably be followed again this spring to curb the isolated infestation at Sayre. The plan is to make a light annual application of poison instead of a heavy application once in several years as formerly.

Scouting for new beetle infestations will be done as in the past, largely by the federal government. It is expected also that the federal office will continue the policy of liberating parasites at all outlying points where the beetle infestation is sufficient.

New regulations for the control of the European corn borer make only minor changes in the requirements as enforced during 1929. The important provision in the quarantine for the area as a whole is the restrictions placed on the movement of corn, broom corn, sorghums and sudan grass which cannot be moved from points within the area to points outside. Clean shell corn, clean seed of broom corn, sorghums and sudan grass, however may be certified for transportation across the quarantine line by an authorized federal or state inspector.

Corn Clean-Up Under Way.
Enforced clean-up of all corn remnants will be carried out as a year ago in Erie and Crawford counties. Starting the first full week in May, inspectors of the department will visit farms in these two counties and in case farmers have not voluntarily made the necessary clean-up, the department will be compelled to do the work and charge the expense to the farm owner. The requirements of the clean-up are: 1. All corn stalks, corn cobs, heavy weeds and all corn fodder remnants of any kind, regardless of the location, must be burned. 2. Corn stubbles must be completely plowed under or broken off at the ground, gathered and burned before May 1.

Scouting work in the interior counties will be done by the state to determine the degree of infestation, as well as the effectiveness of the clean-up work in the counties where this effort is required. Federal scouts will search new areas to determine any spread of the insect.

Road patrols along the corn borer quarantine line will be used during the late summer and fall to enforce the regulations which prohibit the transportation of corn from the infested area.

Watch Other Pests.

Other insects, especially the Oriental fruit moth and the Mexican bean beetle, will be given attention during the year. Observations and check-ups on methods of control and the extent of damage being done by the Mexican bean beetle will be conducted.

Parasites of the Oriental fruit moth are being reared in the laboratory at Chambersburg and will be released during the season in orchards in that section. The results will be studied carefully to determine the effectiveness of parasites as a means of controlling this serious fruit pest.

"Under the spell of so-called efficiency many of us fall into a machine-made mould of thought and habit," declares Miss Abbie Graham, of New York. "Leisure intelligently used can raise the level of happiness," she says. Miss Graham is the author of a new book titled, "High Occasions," in which she avers that everyone has a right to waste time.

SUPER-QUALITY NO EXTRA COST

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

I have a couple of Franks writing me from Chicago. One a widower whose third letter I have before me each demanding the address of a widow I mentioned in this column. He is sure he can interest her. I'm pretty sure he couldn't. Frank K., this is NOT a matrimonial agency. Don't you know that you take enough chances when you KNOW who they are? It's a wonder there isn't even MORE trouble in the world, the way folks go after it!

Then comes Frank M., a bachelor who wants to be heard and while I am as fed up on the bachelor discussion as you are. I'm going to let Frank have his way, because he is so "set in his ways" it gives you a pretty good idea as to why they remain single and how much better it is for the women that they do. Says Frank:

"We bachelors don't have to listen to such trash and as far as baking is concerned we can beat all the young flappers put together. Neither do we make apple strudel like the Flappers make it, they roll up the whole dog-gone table cloth with the dough and apples."

"So come on you kittens and try and put something over on us bachelors, we don't want any of your biscuits. Keep 'em."

(Signed) Bachelor Frank.

—K Exactly what we will do Frank, and the next time you make biscuits, I hope you won't make a mistake and get Roach powder when you meant to get soda. It has happened to smarter people than you are—

Elmer, age 13, was puzzled over the girl problem and discussed it with his pal, Joe.

"I've walked to school with her three times," he told Joe, "and carried her books. I bought her ice cream sodas twice. Now do you think I ought to kiss her?"

Fire Pump Helps Calm Irrate Bull

Forest Fire Warden Howard Eschelman of Geiger's Mills had a vicious bull which broke out of his stall and ran into the barnyard. Attempts were made to chase the bull back into his stall, but without success. After several attempts Warden Eschelman thought of a new fire pump which had recently been delivered to him as a part of his forest fire equipment. He filled it with water and "shot the bull" with a stream of water. It proved effective, for the bull apparently frightened by this new plan of attack, quickly ran into his stall.

Jail Bristles with Guns as Mob Mutters

A hair trigger tensity prevailed at the Ohio State Penitentiary as National Guardsmen, clad in tin hats and armed with machine guns, rifles and sawed-off shot guns took over control of the prison, while others in war-like attitude took up positions on the prison roof ready to quell the mutiny. The 3,900 convicts—sullen, bitter men—awaited with a fatalistic calm and resentment the next move of the militia. (International Newsreel)

DISTRICT MINISTERS MEET IN CROTON CHURCH

New Castle District Methodist Pastors Hold All Day Conference At Croton

Candidates For License To Preach Are Examined At Afternoon Session

The Seventy-first annual meeting of the New Castle District, Erie Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal church was held in the Croton Avenue Methodist church Wednesday all day.

Ministers from all over the district were in attendance, they included: R. V. Skinner, Chicago; C. C. Baker, Clarksville; W. E. Bassett, Clintonville; C. H. Frampton, East Claire; S. H. Bailett, Edinburg; J. E. Iams, Erie; J. L. Bensinger, Fredonia; R. B. Withers, Greenwood; C. E. Petrie, Grove City; J. B. Edwards, Harrisville; S. R. Matland, Hilliards; L. L. Woodin, Hillsville; T. E. Colley, Mercer; Job Ellis, Nazareth; G. E. Shaffer, New Bedford; C. S. Joshua, Croton; S. L. Maxwell, Epworth; Thomas Francis, Euclid; H. C. Weaver, First, New Castle; John Rugiero, Italian; D. D. Sleppy, Mahoning; C. J. Baker, Wesley; V. L. Bloomquist, New Wilmington; Henry Shilling, Pikesville; J. E. Allgood, Robinson Chapel;

C. L. Downs, Savannah; H. B. Davis, First Sharon; W. E. Thornton, Oakland avenue; I. E. Russell, Sharpville; P. H. Frampton, Slippery Rock; H. H. Thompson, Volant; W. H. Fenton, Wampum; Earl W. Engle, West Margaret Joshua of Croton and H. L. Johnson of Simpson M. E. Mrs. Earl W. Engle, Mrs. W. E. Bassett, Mrs. J. L. Petrie and Mrs. R. W. Skinner accompanied their husbands.

The morning session was in charge of Dr. C. G. Farr, the district superintendent and W. H. Fenton led the opening devotionals and S. H. Bailett gave an inspiring address on "The Holy Spirit."

C. G. Farr gave the report for the district, which was followed by reports from each member of the conference.

At noon the assemblage adjourned to the dining room, where the ladies of Croton church served luncheon. Their tables were pleasingly centered with vases of spring flowers and appointments of pink and yellow were used.

Following luncheon the ministers again assembled in the Sunday school room of the church and devotions were led by Earl N. Engle.

During the afternoon fifteen minute addresses were made by the different ministers, all of them being thoroughly enjoyed. I. E. Russell talked on "Conserving Evangelistic Results," H. H. Thompson spoke on the "Rural Pastors' Opportunities," H. B. Davis discussed the "City Pastor's Responsibilities and " Denominational Loyalties" were discussed by C. E. Petrie on "To World Service," T. E. Colley, "To Disciplinary Financial Plan" and C. H. Frampton, "To the Advocate." W. A. Frampton discussed the "Summer Church Activities."

Rev. J. H. Jelbert, field secretary for the Cribbs Home at Meadville, gave a splendid report on his work. He is responsible for the financing of the home for old folks of the Methodist church and the upkeep of this home at Meadville requires $30,000.00 annually.

Leroy Ives a representative of the St. Luke's Hospital at Cleveland, a protege of the Methodist church, was also present and gave the ministers a vivid picture of the work of that institution and the worthiness of the case.

Candidates Examined Abram Shaffer was the only candidate examined in the local preachers studies of the third year but a number of applicants for licenses for local preaching were examined, these included: Eve B. Nicklin, who has been a deaconess at the Croton Methodist church for the past two years; J. B. Houk, of Wampum; H. C. Beatty of Ridgeville; Melvin Moorehouse of New Bedford; Samuel C. Baker of Savannah; Len Phipps of Wesley church and Herbert Boyd of New Bedford.

The afternoon session was brought to a close by a sermon on "Pentecost" by Rev. C. L. Downs.

Dinner was again served the ministers in the church dining room and an air of good fellowship filled the room as the ministers met in companionable mood.

The evening session opened with G. E. Shaffer conducting the devotions and Dr. Daniel Westfall, business manager of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, made the address, giving a stirring sermon especially appropriate to ministers, using as his theme "Preach the Word." He emphasized the value of preaching the true Biblical doctrine and the spirit in which it was presented.

The choir sang a beautiful anthem during the service and Rev. J. L. Bensinger of Fredonia gave a solo, which was pleasing.

Of the forty-two ministers in the district there were 39 present at the conference and a notable fact was that there was not a vacancy on the program.

The ministers adjourned in the evening with the feeling that they had spent an entirely profitable and inspiring day. Many of them remained in the city to attend the Layman's council being held in the First Methodist church today.

Rubber Heel Is Clue To Theft

WASHINGTON, Pa., May 2.—William D. Hitchcock, aged 21, of Canonsburg, who told Canonsburg police he had been robbed of his automobile by "hitch-hikers," is in the county jail himself, along with his uncle, H. V. Banfield, 33, of Canonsburg, charged with having held up and robbed the proprietor of the Murray Hill service station, near Canonsburg.

A rubber heel print at the service station resulted in Hitchcock's undoing. His original story was doubted by the officers. The heel print was discovered at the Murray Hill station. It corresponded to that made by the heel of Hitchcock's shoe and he was taken into custody along with Banfield. They were arraigned before Alderman A. A. Cummins and held for court.

Rojas, Washed Up As Fighter, Was Victim Of Bad Breaks

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 2.—SIX years ago newspaper reporters and photographers met him when he arrived from Chile; five years ago he knocked out Jack Sharkey, the talkative lar from Boston; today he fights has-beens and would-bes at regiment armories and small clubs for still smaller sums.

That is the story of Quintero Romero-Rojas, South American pugilist, who like his countryman, Luis Angel Firpo followed the trail of shekels to its source—New York—but unlike the mastodontic bruiser who fell before the relentless attack of Jack Dempsey, he profited little by his appearances here.

He never had the breaks that fell to Firpo. Of course he never had the color or the ability either. Still he was a game battler, willing and aggressive. Yet he never caught on; never got into the big money. Why? Because, as said, he never had the breaks.

But whether the game or the fans keep on fighting. When he arrived here from Chile six years ago he talked mainly of the little girl he had left behind in his native country. She is now a charming young lady and attends public school here. His dreams of fabulous fortune long shattered, Rojas still hopes to accumulate a little fortune for his family.

That's why Rojas doesn't retire, that's why the man who stopped Jack Sharkey—the same Sharkey who will fight Max Baer in June and who may pick up a quarter of a million dollars for his trouble, also the heavy-weight title—is fighting at armories and small clubs for still smaller sums, and as often as not, in the semi-finals not the main bout.

New British Device Locates Water Mains

LONDON, May 2.—Modern science has added to the ranks of the unemployed the countless experts in the ancient art of water-divining. A new British invention, called the Sharmen Main Finder, is designed to locate water underground. It is claimed that when the instrument is directly over a water pipe—or even a gas pipe—it sends a buzz through a car phone. The instrument is intended to eliminate the digging up of roadways to locate water mains.

SUFFERING OF 5 YEARS ENDED BY NEW KONJOLA

Railroad Fireman Has High Praise
For New And Different Medicine.

MR. OLIVER L. BERGER

"Konjola certainly proved its powers in my case by ending all my troubles," said Mr. Oliver L. Berger, Cressona, Pa., near Pottsville. "For five years I suffered from indigestion. Gas formed, bloating and pains followed every meal. I also suffered from kidney disorders. My back ached and pained constantly."

"I was discouraged and then Konjola gave me renewed hope. After taking four bottles of this medicine, I felt better than in years, free from indigestion and without an ache or pain. My nerves are quieted and I have gained in strength and energy. My brother has also been greatly benefited by Konjola."

This is not an unusual case. It is but one of tens of thousands when given a fair trial. From six to eight weeks, Konjola will do the same for you—for everyone. Konjola is sold by Love & McGown, the druggists, 204 E. Washington St., this city.

rich man, tried it recently at Sausalito, and immediately afterward went on a search for four leaf clovers, horseshoes, rabbits' hoofs and other amulets.

The new yacht started skidding into the water at midnight, while Crocker and his friends watched it. Everything went wrong except the eclipse.

Everyone was wetted by the rain. The blocks stuck, the wind howled. The box upon which Mrs. Salisbury Field for whose rancho the yacht was to be named, was too small and when the yacht went by Mrs. Field swung as its prow with a bottle of champagne and missed. Crocker hurried the precious container after the retreating yacht.

The boat was named "Zaca."

Perfumed City Is Predicted

NEW YORK, May 2.—The American city of the future will be perfumed as were the ancient Greek cities, according to Georges Klotz, New York and Paris perfumer, upon his return to New York.

Perfumery of sidewalks will serve as an antidote for automobile exhausts and kindred poisonous city odors, he added.

"The Greeks were aware of the psychological value of perfume," Klotz said. "They scented their towns by releasing doves, bathed in priceless odors."

"Much of the jar the nervous system endures through constant exposure to the city's noises could be overcome by the soothing influence of balmy perfume. Flower-like scents could be injected into the atmosphere from public fountains."

Signs of the Times

Spring is here. Nature has her artists out putting the green into the grass and into the leaves of the trees as a background, soft and restful, for the scenic charms that later will be worked out in the landscaping of our hills and our valleys.

The Master Artist is ready with dainty and brilliant and amber colored already mixed to tint the blossoms to sketch views of rivers and tumbling streams; to cover the naked rocks with lichens and banks them with ferns, to blend the shades of growing things by reflecting upon them the sun from a blue sky and through fleecy clouds.

Our hearts will thrill to these painted landscapes, let down from Heaven as signs of the love that the Father has for His children. Almost we sing "I love Thy rocks and rills" but a rude hand, a vulgar, devastating hand, will have blocked our view with "Somebody's Pills." Side step the pills and the "Hot Doggies" greet you and run with you all the way. Perhaps it is their growl, not yours, when Dew Drop Inn looms between you and that wonderful view you would enjoy or at the next view so skillfully hidden behind a cigarette.

Those signs so perfectly wrought by the Master Artist that would bring peace and joy to the soul of man are hidden behind shacks plastered over by signs that appeal only to the stomach of man.

Ambitious advertisers have planted these obnoxious signs by the roadway, watered and tended them with a money-mad frenzy and today we have a crop of signs from fence-post plates to mammoth billboards in ample and intricate and twisted shapes and in colors that startle with their brilliancy and bizarre blending or attract by their nearness to an artistic display.

These are the signs from which you read of cold cream, of hotels at which to stop, of chewing gum, of the tailor who makes two-pants suits, of the chicken dinner just ahead, of Ye Giffte Shop, of waffles and honey, of the best tires to buy.

There are other signs that are in the making. The offended esthetic taste of travellers, the affronted longings of lovers of nature, the wounded patriotism of beauty loving citizens are the bristles of a painters brush that has already been dipped into an aroused distaste for this desecration of beauty and is rapidly letting a sign that will be unfurled from ocean to ocean and blazon forth in secret letters. "Public Opinion declares that beauty of America must be conserved."

So long a sign takes much time in its making. More effective in point of time is that one which is a pledge and has been indorsed by the Garden Club of America. "As a practical protest against the desecration of our countryside we shall favor those products not advertised on the landscape."

Those who are wise will read this sign with all its meaning.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs with its three million members is a very active, aggressive part of that great army that has already been mustered to save the beauty of America.

Signboards on all the roads, leading into New Castle are so big that they absolutely muss up any view of our city. The indignation of the club women, and many others, over this vulgar, uncouth aspect of our city that is presented to all who enter through our roadways is growing.

The sign forming in our own city foretells that it may grow until it will be impossible for our women to see anything advertised on billboards. A boycott?

Thick ropes of beads which match all the colors of the printed chiffon evening gown they accompany, are the latest Paris jewelry fad.

Special Sermon At Trinity Sunday

Rector Will Talk From Book Of Acts At The Sunday Evening Service

"A Life turned-up-side-down and its results," will be the subject of the Bible Study in Trinity church next Sunday evening under the leadership of the Rector, the Rev. Philip C. Pearson at 7:30 o'clock.

When God calls men say they cannot obey, their habits are fixed, they have certain obligations, home ties, etc., but the 9th chapter of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles is one of four accounts in the New Testament of how a man who might have died an obscure, even though zealous Pharisee, the whole course of his life changed, right-about-faced, became a leader of men and died one of the greatest men as traveler, adventurer, administrator, and thinker the world has ever known. A prolific writer upon practical matters and theoretical problems, what has come from his pen is more often studied and debated about today than the literary contribution of any other man in the world's history. The Bible is the world's best seller today.

Standard Glass In Hands Of Receivers

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Temporary receivers today were in charge of the Standard Plate Glass company, appointed by President Judge James R. MacFarlane in common pleas court yesterday on petition of the Keystone traffic bureau, a creditor. A final hearing will be held May 19.

The Keystone traffic bureau claims the glass company owes it $485 and that the company has been operating at a loss for some time. The complaint states the defendant's property real and personal, is valued at $4,400,000 and that notes amounting to $750,000 were due March 1, but an extension was secured.

The receivers are Frank E. Trautman of Butler, John R. Eckler, Pittsburgh, and J. Gregg McKee, vice president of the Peoples-Pittsburgh Trust company. They furnished bond of $100,000.

Game Farm Is Now Busy Spot

HUNDREDS OF YOUNG BIRDS TO BE RAISED

One of the busiest spots in the county is the Jordan State Game Farm, a short distance south of Harlansburg, as the spring hatching season has gotten under way.

Eggs which were gathered earlier in the season were shipped out to other state hatcheries, while some were sold to concerns in adjoining states.

Most of the eggs gathered recently, however, have been kept at the farm and are being set under bantam hens for the purpose of rearing a supply of young birds for propagation purposes.

In a few weeks, hundreds of young birds will hatch out and the game farm will be an interesting spot to visit.

Considerable fencing has been put up at the game farm during the winter which will provide additional ground for the birds to run on. The wings of the old birds are kept clipped so that they cannot fly away.

Parents-Teachers Stage Play Tonight

Plans Completed For Presentation Of "The Singin' Skewl" This Evening

All arrangements have been completed by the Parents-Teachers Association of the Oak Street school for the presentation of "The Singin' Skewl," which will be given in the Reformed Presbyterian church on Oak Street this evening.

Rehearsals have been held for the past month, and the cast has neared a stage of perfection, assuring a finished performance.

In addition to the rendition of a number of old familiar tunes, considerable quaint humor is interwoven through the plot of the comedy, which will bring howls of laughter from the audience.

All the performers will be attired in the costumes of yesterday.

Sanitary Camping Grounds
Are Being Established
In National Forests

Health And Comfort Of Visitors Is Looked After By Forestry Service

"The average pleasure-seeking visitor to the National Forests likes to be reasonably wild and woolly," says Assistant Forester L. F. Kneipp of the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. "But, although he wants to get back to nature, he has developed certain standards of comfort, neatness, sanitation and care in the use of fire, not always attainable in the open forest. Moreover, contrary to popular belief, he is strongly gregarious in disposition and likes to camp in the neighborhood of others of his kind."

These tendencies have made it possible to reduce the hazards to public health and property which otherwise would result from the presence of millions of people in the National Forest each summer. Mr. Kneipp says. By making available suitable campgrounds, with adequate sources of pure water supply, equipment for garbage disposal, fire prevention facilities, sanitary utilities and attractive surroundings, a concentration of visitors is achieved voluntarily and consensually to public health and property is held within safe limits. At the same time the comfort and pleasure of the visitors is measurably enhanced and the social value of the National Forests is increased proportionately.

To help meet the needs of the millions of National Forest visitors, the Forest Service has designated approximately 1,500 public campgrounds within the National Forests, and has installed in 1,180 of these campgrounds some or all of the simple facilities which contribute to public health, comfort and pleasure, and minimize fire risk. Each annual appropriation by Congress allows for an extension of the work, and eventually a complete system of well equipped campgrounds will be available to forest visitors.

SAYS U. S. HAS MORE MORONS THAN IT NEEDS

By DR. JON ALFRED MJOEN Distinguished Norwegian Biologist in an exclusive interview with International News Service.

(Copyright, 1930, by International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, May 2—America has more morons than it needs.
Unless steps are taken to build up a normal healthy population, the United States will face a socio-economic problem far greater than its political and industrial problems that have been solved with admirable wisdom by the American people.

Race biology offers the solution.
Science now tells us how we can purify the race, cut down the number of mental, physical and moral defects and decrease a tax burden that is rapidly becoming oppressive.

Race hygiene divides naturally into three classes.

1. Negative race hygiene. This includes selective colonization, material insurance, human biology in schools and universities, clearinghouse for exchange of knowledge respecting the renewal, nourishment, health and movement of population.

2. Prophylactic race hygiene. This includes combatting diseases and bad habits such as narcotic and alcohol habits; organization of a state function to prevent racial and national diseases; requirement of a constantly necessity for marriage, prevention of crossing stocks too closely related and individuals; biological registration of the whole nation.

Some of these measures are already in operation and others are ready to be put in operation by act of the Norwegian Parliament.

The adoption of even a part of the race Hygiene 3 programme would relieve the community of a constantly multiplying contingent of drunks, wayward boys and girls, imbeciles, and cripples, reduce crime, save the happiness of families, halt the transmission of race infections to future generations, raise the intellectual standard of the state and repay its cost a million-fold in reduced taxation.

I recommend the study and application of race hygiene principles in the United States.

HIGHLIGHTS OF HISTORY

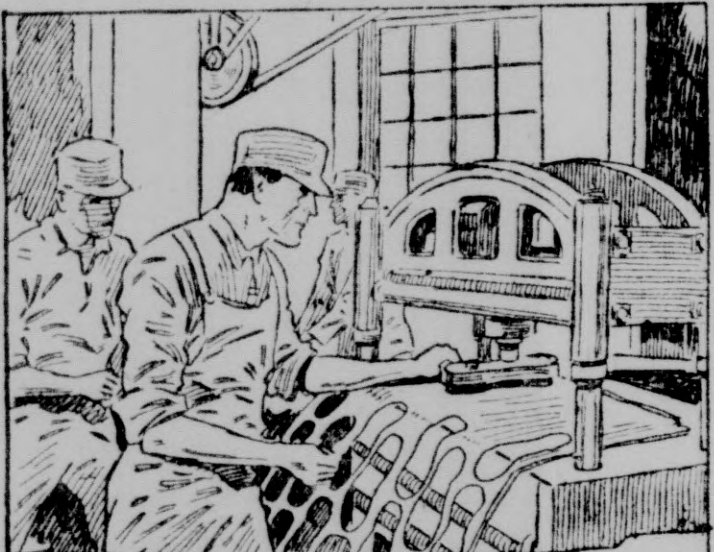

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of American Industry
Leather (Concluded)

UNTIL THE MIDDLE OF THE 19TH CENTURY MOST OF THE PROCESSES OF SHOEMAKING WERE DONE BY HAND. THEN ELIAS HOWE'S INVENTION OF THE SEWING MACHINE (ADAPTED IN 1851 FOR THE SEWING OF UPPERS) REVOLUTIONIZED THE INDUSTRY. ABOUT THE SAME TIME MACHINES FOR PEGGING OR NAILING THE UPPERS TO THE SOLES CAME INTO GENERAL USE.

IN THE "SEVENTIES" THE GROWTH OF LARGE CATTLE RANCHES IN THE WEST GAVE THE LEATHER INDUSTRY AN INCREASED SUPPLY OF HIDES. THE CHICAGO SLAUGHTER HOUSES DREW LARGE TANNERIES TO ILLINOIS, WISCONSIN AND MICHIGAN. HOWEVER, SINCE LEATHER COULD BE SHIPPED CHEAPLY, LYNN AND BROCKTON CONTINUED TO BE THE LEADING SHOE MANUFACTURING CENTERS.

THE SHOEMAKING INDUSTRY IS NO LONGER A HAND TRADE. TODAY THERE IS A SPECIAL MACHINE FOR EVERY STEP IN THE MAKING OF SHOES. SOME FACTORIES SPECIALIZE IN PRODUCING ONLY A SINGLE PART OF A SHOE.

THERE ARE MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND WORKERS EMPLOYED IN THE MAKING OF BOOTS AND SHOES (NOT INCLUDING RUBBER BOOTS AND SHOES) IN THE UNITED STATES, AND THE YEARLY OUTPUT OF THIS GREAT INDUSTRY IS WORTH MORE THAN ONE BILLION DOLLARS.

Municipal Golf Links Thrown Open Thursday Course In Good Shape

Seventy Golfers Take Advantage Of Opening Day For Nine Holes Of Play

Nunn And Gilliland Praise Work That Has Been Done To Make Course Fine One

New Castle's Municipal Golf Course was thrown open to the public for the summer season yesterday. Seventy golfers took advantage of the opening day to go around the beautiful course. Only nine-holes were available for play, but by Saturday it is hoped that the full 18 holes can be utilized.

The course for this early in the season is in excellent shape. The greens are fast and the fairways are in good condition. A lot of the mental hazards that existed last year such as dense woods and tall grass has been eliminated this year, but still the course is plenty tricky.

Course Is Praised
Two of New Castle's prominent golfers after completing nine-holes yesterday afternoon said that the Municipal will rank with the best in this section of the country. The two men were "Bill" Nunn and M. K. Gilliland, both former club champions at the New Castle Field Club. Playing in a foursome that consisted of Nunn, Gilliland, Lauri Laurel and "Bugs" Walther Nunn turned in a 41 for the nine-holes and Gilliland had a 49. The par score for the first nine holes at the Muni is 38. For the first time on the links the two men turned in fine scores and will no doubt approach par in later efforts.

Both Nunn and Gilliland were in their praise of the work that has been done at the Municipal Course, and the committee Howard B. Richards, Louis B. Rounds and Dan Woodcock are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts to make the public course at New Castle one of the finest.

There are a number of improvements at the course this year, including iron markers that tell the distance to the various holes, ball cleaners, tee-stands and in fact the committee has spared no cost in the effort to give the golfing fraternity of New Castle a real beautiful and interesting golf playground.

Hard Busy Man
Manager "Hub" Hart was as busy as a one armed pirate yesterday afternoon seeing that everything was in running order and attending to the various wants of the golfers. Lockers have been installed for the convenience of the golfers this year and a shower bath has been installed adding to the features of the course. Assisting Hart in the management of the Muni is Mose Mancine as caddy-master and Owen Penfield Fox as field man.

The playing public yesterday was divided as follows: 30 members played the course and the paid admissions totaled 40. It was a grand and glorious opening day with the weather ideal.

According to Hart the management intends to extend every possible courtesy to the golfers and asks that you report any discourtesy that may occur. The golfers are asked to honor the playing rules and replace all turf dug up.

Asks Co-operation
It takes time to make a perfect golf course with fine grassy fairways and greens, and in a few years the Municipal is going to present as fine a golf picture as any course in this part of the United States. The golfers can help in making the course a real beautiful one if they will just lend co-operation.

With the opening day at the Muni now history, the course will offer thousands of golfers in this district a suitable place to enjoy their favorite pastime during the long summer months.

Physical Exams At Senior High

Boys of the senior high school are undergoing their spring physical examinations, according to an announcement from Boys Physical Director William L. Kline. The exams will probably conclude in one week. The boys take two examinations a year, one in the fall and one in the spring. The physical exams take in a boy's height, weight, different measurements of the body, throwing the shot put, running and other essential things to determine a boy's health and strength. By taking two exams a year a boy is able to find out whether he is growing healthier and stronger.

The exams will probably conclude in a week or so.

Athletes Gather At Ohio States

(International News Service)
COLUMBUS, O., May 2.—With nearly 2,500 athletes gathered here, preliminary events in the seventh annual Ohio relays were to begin this afternoon at the Ohio stadium.

The athletes represent fifty universities and colleges from eastern, middle west and southern United States. Sixty high schools from all parts of the east and mid-west are also represented.

Sport scribes used to write that pitchers waged their warfare alone. They're alone, all right, but not for long.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Forty million candlepower of illumination will flood the field tonight at Des Moines when America's first official night baseball game is played. The Des Moines club of the Western League will meet Wichita Commissioner Landis will be present.

Ruby Dark Cloud Bradley is some scrapper. He has won from Billy Kelly, Willie Cubie, Happy Atheron, Ernie Peters, Johnny Vacca, Pinky Silverberg, Frisco Grande, Lew Peretti, claims victories over Black Bill and Willie Davies and has fought Frankie Genaro, Izzy Schwartz and other topnotchers.

The Homestead Grays are up and at it already. They beat Jeannette 8-0 yesterday. The Grays have played here several times this year. Owens pitched yesterday and Harris played first base. The Grays manage to keep their players and they're a popular aggregation wherever they play.

Paul Waner went to the top yesterday and leads the Big Six with a percentage of .479. Flowers of the Robins is second with .469 and Cissell of the White Sox is third with .432. Simmons, Ruth and Hornsby follow in order named.

H. W. Austin, No. ranking tennis player in England, has been dropped from the British Davis cup team for the second round. He was dropped because of his collapse in his match with Dr. Heinz Landmann of Germany in the first round Davis cup tie last week.

American women lost to British golfers at Sunningdale, Eng., eight to six with one halved. The Americans played splendid golf considering that they have not yet lost their sea legs due to the trip across the ocean. One more golf victory for the Americans would have evened the score.

Alleghe college racketeers defeated Bethany yesterday. After breaking even in six singles matches the Methodists scored two victories out of three games in the doubles.

The Farone-Hardy bout has been delayed for one week having been originally carded for Monday night. Instead Billy Frenzel, New Castle will battle Tony Brush, New Castle, at 135 in the opening bout Monday night.

Boxers who are living on the fruit of the land should remember Jake Kilrain. He fought John L. in a 75 round barefist bout. He was popular. Today Jake is a night watchman in a Quincy, Mass., shipyard.

Mickie Solomon continues to hit the road every morning and train at night. "I'm out to do something when I start again" said Solomon yesterday. Solomon wants to tackle anybody, anytime.

Jimmy Dunn, manager of Cleveland boxers and Joe Goodman, are visiting in Norfolk, Va., Joe's relatives live there. Goodman visits his mother every month or two.

Coming events, the Kentucky derby and the Altoona speedway events, will collect big crowds. Big Stuff and Jack Spratt were clocked at 1:16 1-5 for the three quarters and engineers have declared the Altoona track safe.

Sport Ritticisms By BILL RITT

Damon Runyon, the eminent sports scribe, has been wearing spectacles lately. But it's no use. He can still see those terrible fights.

However, there's one thing Damon and everybody else can be thankful for. By the time television is practical, Primo Carnera will probably be back in Italy.

Poor old Primo. He's hardly on speaking terms with anybody any more, even the guy in the mirror. Latest report is that Costa Rica has broken off diplomatic relations.

Scientists got excited over the recent eclipse of the sun, but it was an old story to baseball fans. On opening day they saw an eclipse of the whole sky.

What's Judge Landis for, anyway, if he hasn't the power to suspend the weatherman?

America is bound to win the 1932 Olympics, which will be held at Los Angeles. The foreigners will be too busy looking at the movie stars.

Ball teams now consist of 10 men—catcher, four infielders, three outfielders and two pitchers—one coming in and one going out.

It used to be a disgrace when a pitcher was sent to the showers. Now it's part of his job.

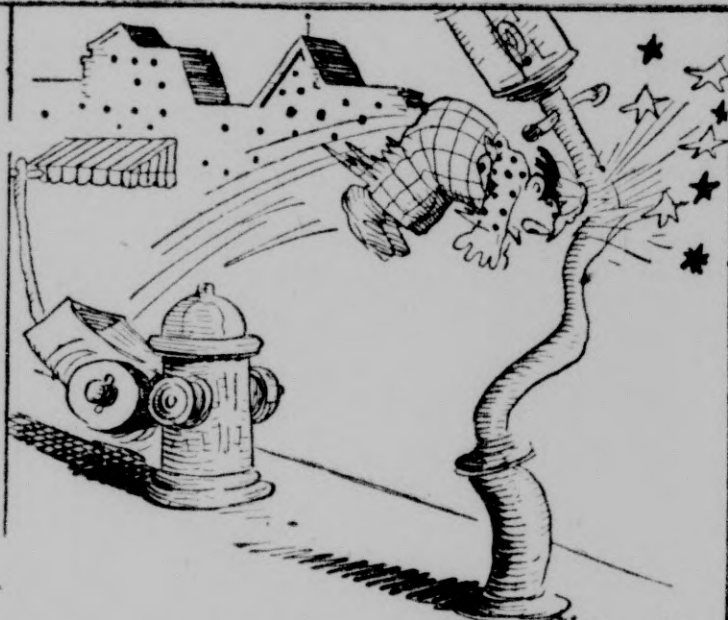

Hurlers are being swapped so often these days that when a rookie pitches two innings of his first game he's considered a veteran.

THE KID'S OLD MAN GAVE SMITH A TERRIBLE BEATING AND SUED HIM FOR $10,000.

Phil's Opportunity Here Monday Night

Dark Cloud Bradley Must Be Eliminated If Phil Wants To Continue Cry That Flyweights Fear Him; Thomas Meets Boler In Return Bout, Lands Tackles Ward And Hardy Will Meet Farone.

Opportunity knocks at every person's door and when Monday night arrives Phil Tobias, temporary resident here will have a chance to show whether Ruby Dark Cloud Bradley is his meat.

Bradley is the chap who fought and defeated Ernie Peters in the Madison Square Garden flyweight tournament and as Tobias walloped Ernie on two occasions at the Bowl they are evenly matched.

Phil is a terrific puncher and they say that the Dark Cloud does not let any flys linger on his gloves. They're fast, experienced, two of the best in the world and the fans should see a mighty interesting setto.

Tobias stepped through 10 rounds of rapid-fire milling yesterday and had as training partners Frankie Lands, Lefty Arnold and other members of the local fistic colony.

Bradley Classy Battler.
Bradley is training with fighters at Holyoke, Mass., his training headquarters and will end heavy work Friday. The Dark Cloud will entertain Friday night or early Saturday morning for this city.

Strange as it may seem Bradley and Tobias have met the leading boys in their division but have never met. Phil has a wholesome respect for Bradley and the Dark Cloud realizes that Tobias is nearly equal to him and one of the best.

Monday night's encounter here is something that would go over big in any of the large cities of the country but flyweights have more appeal in Toronto and New Castle than most cities.

The salient reason for this lies in the fact that they are fast, furnish action and none but the actual topnotchers get a chance to climb thru the ropes in the two cities.

Three Hot Bouts.
The rest of the pugilistic cards has been arranged and every pugilist on calendar has demonstrated his ability to please the fans and after all that is what makes a fistic performer liked. The card:

Jimmy Thomas vs Joe Boler, 120 pounds.
Frankie Lands vs Jackie Ward, 120 pounds.

Buz Hardy vs Al Farone, 128 pounds.
Thomas and Boler battled like two wildcats. Thomas said the low poundage weakened him. Boler said he would be glad to accommodate the colored boy at 120 pounds and the hatch was clinched.

Jimmy is scheduled to box at Pittsburgh tonight and providing the Gypsy Kid doesn't hang a mouse on his eye or a knockout on his chin Jimmy will be ready for the fray with Boler here.

Return Of Hardy.
Frankie Lands who lost to Boler sometime ago will again try his hand with someone in the class and Jackie Ward who lost to Thomas will draw the assignment. Frankie is a New Castle kid who has shown promise.

Hardy and Farone stepped out here months ago and Farone inflicted a gash on Hardy's forehead and the bout was terminated. Since that time he has played for a return bout and his chance to show what he can do to Farone is near.

All-Stars Will Play Ford City

The New Castle All-Stars will journey to Ford City on Saturday to oppose the Ford City high baseball team. The locals are a junior team and independent team combined, this team having won the junior championship last year in New Castle.

The All-Stars expect to give the Ford City boys a good game. The Ford City has such teams as Kiski Prep, Schenley high of Pittsburgh and New Kensington high on their schedule. The locals have a fairly fast team and a good battery. The following compose the battery: H. Palus, James, Rodgers and Ken Donegan for mound duty and Shorty Ramsey and Rodgers for the backstopping job.

The following will make the trip to Ford City: Palus, Rodgers, James, K. Donegan, Ramsey, J. Donegan, Caven, Reynolds, Smith, Aldridge, Capitolo, Guilbry, Semler, Thornton, Melder, Reber, Jack Reiber and Frank Marcell.

Schoolboys Prepare For Tech Carnival Saturday Afternoon

Fifty Scholastic Track Teams In Tri-State District Enter Tech Meet

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 2.—One thousand athletes, representing 50 schools in the tri-state district, compete here Saturday in Carnegie Tech's 14th annual interscholastic track and field meet. The teams seek the championship that was won last year by a well-balanced outfit from Scott high school of Toledo, O., and the individuals vie for handsome medals and cups.

Virtually the entire day is being over to the meet, with trials and semifinals Saturday morning and the finals and the bulk of the field contests in the afternoon.

The program includes a full list of events, with the following: 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, one-mile run, 120-yard high hurdles, 120-yard low hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, shot put, javelin throw, discus throw, hammer throw and mile relays in four classes.

An exceptionally beautiful trophy will be presented to the team scoring the most points, with other cups for the winning relay teams, and gold, silver and bronze medals for the first three men in each event, including relay events. The hammer throw is an optional event, and will not count in the scoring. Neither will the relays.

Scott high, the 1929 winner, is back with another powerful team, and only a tremendous improvement in some of the western Pennsylvania entrants will prevent the Ohioans from going home with the title again. They spread-eagled the field last year.

The morning events begin at 11 o'clock, daylight saving time, and the afternoon program will start at 2 o'clock.

Carnegie Tech's athletic association will be host to officials and coaches at a luncheon between the morning and afternoon events.

PHALANX VS. LOCKLEYS
The Phalanx team of the Mercantile division of the New Castle football league will play the Lockley Mac team of the Industrial division at Lehigh Field tonight at 6:30 o'clock. All players asked to report promptly.

Folks who blame the lively ball for this business forget that the trouble might be a lot of dead arms.

Light Workout For Gridders Thursday

Fred Fabian, McAuley, Jamison, And Crisci Seem To Be Located

Due To Warm Weather Coach Sends Gridders Through Light Workout

New Castle high school spring training gridders, due to the warm weather yesterday, were sent through a rather light workout at Taggart field in preparation for Friday evening, May 9, when the local Red and Black pigskin catchers wind up the spring training season with a night game against Chaney High 1929 grid champs of Youngstown. Calisthenics and signal drills constituted the training menu on Thursday afternoon.

"Benny" Ciccone last year's captain and who is ineligible to play, is helping Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh and Assistant "Gig" Thomas with the coaching. He sent the gridders through the different exercises. Coach Bridenbaugh then ordered the boys through signal drills which lasted over one hour. This ended the practice.

The boys will probably receive another light workout this afternoon but starting with Monday which is only four days before the Chaney game the coach will more than likely hold scrimmages. On Tuesday and Wednesday light scrimmages may be held and then on Thursday the boys will wind up training with signal drills.

Due to the remaining time the boys are fighting harder than ever in hope of being among the first eleven who will be chosen to oppose the Youngstowners in the unusual night game. Several places appear to be clinched but there are quite a few open. In the backfield the writer ventures to say that "Red" McAuley last year's quarterback will be seen at his old post on May 9.

Fred Fabian a new comer looks like Coach Bridenbaugh's selection for the fullback position. He has been making a good showing since spring training started. Bender another member from last season will probably be seen at one of the half posts if he keeps up the good work.

Due to the fact that Robert Hoose will be in Philadelphia on May 9 it is not known who will be selected at one of the half posts. Jimmy Sotus and Nick Uram are making strong bids for the open backfield place. "Bob" Jamison seems to be the grider who will be used at center. Through the help of Benny Ciccone one of the best centers ever developed at the high school, Jamison is receiving many "pointers".

Who will be used at guard and end is a question. Harry Crisci at tackle and George Deep at guard look like two sure of a place on the line. Mike, Schepp, Janovick, Ostrosky, Rowe, and Ascoures are fighting hard for positions on the line.

There is one sure thing and that is that the line this year will be a heavy one. With six gridders topping the 200 pound mark one can see just what the line will look like. Jimmy who was on the casualty list with a bruised arm for a few days returned to practice on Thursday afternoon and took his post at center. Fred Crisci who is making a hard fight for one of the backfield posts is the third man on the casualty list since spring training started. He sustained a badly sprained foot in the scrimmage on Wednesday night.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner stated today that tickets for the game will be placed on sale at the Sporting Goods store on East Washington street on Saturday morning. The price will be 75 and 50 cents. Holders of season tickets last fall will be given first choice. All tickets are reserved.

Lehigh Tops Bankers

It was only a practice marshball game last night at Lehigh Field, but it had all the earmarks of a first-class encounter in mid-season form. The Lehigh boys won the game 3 to 0. The hits were scattered with the Bankers having five and the Lehigh four, according to Wes Davy.

The Lehigh gang had two errors to five for the Bankers. The battery for the Lehigh was Rich and Thompson, and for the Bankers, Krug and Sowersby. Massari and Laurel led the teams with the willow. Rich fanned two men and Krug fanned one.

Donie Bush Says That Cubs-Athletics May Repeat Pennant Wins

White Sox Leader Says That Art Shires Is Ideal Type Of Baseball Player

Bush Thinks Cubs Must Beat Pirates To Repeat—Macks Face Tough Grind

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 2.—Starting with the assertion that "Shires is the ideal type of ballplayer and wish I had more like him," Donie Bush, manager of the Chicago White Sox, today set off a series of oral firecrackers right in front of the writer.

If he realized that he was calling everything by its right name, he gave no sign. He simply was naming his shots and the following is the official score in runs, hits and errors, as the case may or may not be.

The Washington Senators may be sitting on top of the American League but, little as he claims to know about the league at this time, he says he is willing to venture that he knows about the Senators. They simple haven't got it, says he.

Pirates Look Good
If the Chicago Cubs win the National League pennant again, they will have to beat at least one club that is their superior. The Pittsburgh Pirates, and maybe another, the New York Giants.

The Athletics ought to win but they won't—unless they show more ability to beat the East. The West, said he, will be just a series of four tough stops for any eastern invader, with Cleveland and St. Louis the toughest.

As for C. Arthur Shires, the open adenoid, Mr. Bush finds him to be almost self-effacing. "He's all right," said Mr. Bush with just that shade of emphasis that meant that C. Arthur Shires was, indeed, all right. A snappy little Irishman, Mr. Bush. He looks right along the barrel at you with a pair of steady eyes and defies you to stare him down. There's a lurking suggestion of chill in those eyes. They aren't cold—but they can be. He gets a lot of satisfaction out of speaking his mind and so the writer decided to let him enjoy himself.

The Cubs? They'll be lucky to repeat, what with the way they were going last year from September on into and through the world series.

Giants Impressive
"The Pirates are a better club," he added. With those young players coming through for them, they will be hard to lick when L. Waner and Traynor get back. The trading of Grimes seemed to settle their pennant chances, too, but the young pitchers have come forward in his place. They are up there now. They'll stay up there and maybe they will go even higher when they get set with their real lineup.

"If the Giants get pitching, they will be able to beat the Cubs, too. They might even win. McGraw has a good ball club. In fact, if either the Giants and Pirates had kept on top of the Cubs last year they would have beaten Chicago in the stretch."

So much for that. How about the Senators? Just as one man guessing with another, Mr. Bush was willing to guess that the Senators were over their heads like the parlor ceiling.

"I haven't seen them in years," he conceded, "but I ought to have an idea of what they have. I had a lot of them down there in Washington seven years ago and some of those boys weren't so juvenile then. This isn't the year to win with a club like that. Of course they'll be hard for us to beat because they all will be hard for us to beat this year. We're just getting started together and I'm still uncertain at shortstop. Jolley hasn't begun to hit but I figure him to do at least 330."

Cleveland Is Strong
They have a couple of real clubs in St. Louis and Cleveland, a fact that the Athletics will discover when they try to repeat some of their western trips of last year. This is no body. This race of their western trips of last year. This is no bus ride. This race is going to be a race. Another thing about the Athletics: they aren't going to keep on beating the Yankees forever. No club is going to do that. The Athletics may win the pennant but, before they do, somebody is going to chase them through the door and right on upstairs."

With which Mr. Bush, having spoken his piece, bowed himself to the nearest exit. It was a relief to hear a baseball man talk strictly from the book. Most of them spend their time approving of Ruth's hitting or Connie Mack's managing or Grove's pitching. They also have been known to speak well of McGraw's generalship.

First Baptist Team To Practice

Candidates for places on the First Baptist church baseball team, which will perform this year in the church league, will meet at the Scotland Lane grounds tonight for practice. A playing manager will be selected at this time.

Cascades To Play Colored All-Stars

The Cascade A. C. of the City-County league will play the Colored All-Stars at Cascade Field Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Tonight the Cascade boys will gather at the home of Nick Ferry for a meeting. The meeting is called for 8 o'clock. A practice game is also scheduled for the Cascade team this evening.

Baltimore Wins From Yankees

(International News Service)
BALTIMORE, May 2.—This is Babe Ruth's home town but that did not seem to have any difference and today the Baltimore Orioles enjoyed a victory over the New York Yankees, 8 to 7. The Orioles won the exhibition game with a triple and single off McEvoy.

Pirates Drop To Boston Braves

Seibold Outpitches French To Give Boston Win In First Western Game

FORBES FIELD, PITTSBURGH, May 2.—Manager Bill McKeon brought his Boston Beaneaters to town yesterday afternoon for their first game of the initial western invasion of the year and they dusted off the Pirates 4 to 3 in a good ball game.

If Young Bill Berger hadn't of clouted those two homers over the left field wall, the game would have had a different complexion, but he did and the Braves deserved the victory.

The Pirates outbit Boston 10 to 9 but could not bunch their hits for runs when they were needed. Seibold had the nurling job for the visitors and pitched right well. French started for the Pirates and gave way to Spencer in the eighth.

By losing the game the Pirates slipped back into second place, with the Giants passing them.

"Lefty" Grove Too Strong For Tigers, As Macks Pound Out Nine-teen Runs

ONLY TWO GAMES PLAYED YESTERDAY

By COPELAND C. BURG,
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 2.—There is always something mysterious about baseball—which is one way of plunging right into today's current problem—what happened as Detroit was turned into mixed ingredients by the World's Champion Athletics to the melody of 19 to 2.

And it appears it was simply a case of too much Mr. Lefty Grove. They have been saying Mr. Grove was losing all his speed and complained of a morning of that run-down, tired feeling. But yesterday Grove pitched beautifully and loaded through the latter stages. He allowed the Tigers only seven hits and struck out nine.

While Grove was performing so superbly Detroit employed Sorrell, Sullivan, Samuels and Page in a fruitless effort to check the A's Bishop and Fox each got two homers and Simmons contributed one.

New York was back today at the head of the National league as the result of the defeat of Pittsburgh by the Boston Braves, 4 to 3. Walter Berger was the main cause of the Pirates' fall from grace. After a pitching battle for six innings between Seibold of Boston and Larry French of

Westminster Track Team Opens Season Against Dukes Tomorrow

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., May 2.—Westminster College opens the varsity track season tomorrow afternoon on the home field when Coach Elmer Layden brings his Duquesne University team to the Titan stronghold for a dual meet.

Although the U. P. outfit possesses ability, weather conditions have allowed but two good workouts all spring, and a number of days were spoiled for outdoor work by rain and snow. With the Dukes strong in the distance events, the weights, and in the jumps, the Titan outfit will be extended to the limit to eke out a victory.

It is true that Duquesne has lost Schellenback, star sprinter, but the Titan team is also without the services of Hemer, sprint ace. Deane Osborne, another sprinting ace and running mate with Hemer for the last two seasons, will be called on to carry the brunt of the sprint burden for Westminster.

In the mile and two mile events, Duquesne has Pesci, tri-state conference record holder. Again this star Westminster will pit James Smalley and Elmer Myers in the mile, and Lorenz Stocker and Robert Wallace in the two mile.

DeVinney, football star, will enter the sprints and the middle distance events for the Dukes. In the quarter mile he will be opposed by Captain William Crowell and Wilson Boisford, two Westminster seniors.

Westminster will have Brownlee, Louis Pereseny, and Captain Kenneth Delahunty for the high hurdles. For the low hurdles, Brownlee, Pereseny, Delahunty, and Ted Bair are available.

In the high jump, Marvin Clark, Bryce Yourd, Clinton Welsh, and David Hunter should give the Titans plenty of points. Captain Delahunty, Paul Banks, Bryce Yourd, and William Campbell will handle the pole vault assignment for the Titans.

Mauno Siljander, Captain Delahunty, Pereseny, and Considine will be entered in the broad jump. In the weights, Glenn Rhefus, Richard Fuller, Donald Cleland, Robert Deacie, Harry Brownlee, and Robert Pattison should gather a number of points.

Siljander, Captain Delahunty, Pereseny, and Osborne will be in the sprints for Westminster; and William Williams and Ted Blauer will be in the half and quarter. With this lineup, Coach Graham hopes to win the first dual meet of the season and then get enough good weather to point to the Allegheny meet to be held on the home field May 10.

The meeting will get under way at 1:45 P. M. on the upper track field.

Defense Holds No Gas Leaked Out Of Tanks

Claimed Gas In Tank Was Blue And Gas Found In McGaffie Well,
Green

TANK TESTS FAIL TO SHOW LEAKAGE

Arthur McGaffie's water well from which it is alleged that around 100 gallons of green gasoline have been pumped, was still holding the boards in Judge Chambers court this morning, entering upon the fifth day of the trial. The prosecution ended yesterday and since that time evidence on the part of the defendants, Wilkins Bros., Grant Anderson, Everett Anderson and others is being offered.

The principal contention of the defense is that the gasoline which was placed in the gas tanks was blue, whereas that jumped from the McGaffie was green. It was also contended by the defense that a careful check up, morning and evening, failed to show that any gasoline was leaking from the Anderson pumps.

Everett Anderson testified this morning that it was in August 1928, when Mrs. McGaffie came in his store with a glass container in which she had water and green gasoline which she said she had pumped from the well. She believed that it must have come from the Anderson tanks. Mr. Anderson notified Wilkins Bros. who were supplying the gas and excavations were made around the tanks to ascertain if there were any leaks. The suction pipe and overflow pipe were uncovered. One of the unions a pipe was found to be faulty and was replaced with a new one.

Careful record of the gas placed in the tank was then kept, as well as withdrawals. Checks were made every morning and evening. The gas in the tank was measured with a rod and compared with the withdrawals each evening. By means of a blue print, furnished with the tank Anderson said that it was possible to keep an accurate check.

The only loss shown was from one to two percent which is the normal amount of gas usually lost from a tank from evaporation and other causes. Test was also made by filling the five gallon container at the top of the tank. When this was allowed to stand full there was no decrease in the amount it held, and no bubbles showing any air.

Complaints were later made about the gas in the well and in February 1929, the tank was again dug up by Ralph Thompson. No leaks were found. Robert Whitla, plumber, placed a gauge on the tanks, but it failed to show any loss of gas. The gauge was held at 14 pounds and did not vary. The state fire marshal was also called to examine the tank. In digging down to the pipes witness said that Thompson had made a hole in one with a pick. The piece of pipe was exhibited in court, and the alleged pick mark shown. It had been taken out and replaced with a new pipe. Daily readings were taken night and morning but no loss was shown.

Anderson said that all the samples which he had seen which were alleged to have been taken from the McGaffie well were green, whereas the gas used in the tank was deep blue. Samples of the kind of gas used in the tank were shown to the jury, as well as the green gas that was taken from the well.
